Contents

Ladies in Arms. An Introduction
Teresa Hiergeist and Stefanie Schäfer .................................................... 9

Section I: History Reloaded?

Reinventing Military and Paramilitary Shooters

The Difference between a Shooting and an Armed Woman
Representations of Louise Michel’s Militancy in Contemporary French Biographical Portraits
Teresa Hiergeist ........................................................................ 23

Re-Arming an American Heroine
Harriet Tubman in Contemporary Popular Culture
Katharina Gerund ........................................................................ 37

Armed Resistance and Femininity
The (Self-)Representation of Chilean Gunwomen in Testimonial Narratives and Fiction about Pinochet’s Regime (1973–1990)
Lena Seauve ............................................................................. 57

The Limits of Empowerment
Martin Holtz .............................................................................. 77
Section II: Violent Societies: Civic Gun Cultures, Gender, and Politics

›Don’t Retreat, Reload‹
Guns, Rugged Femininity, and Insurrection in Republican Women Candidates’ 2022 Midterm Political Advertisements
Axelle Germanaz ................................................................. 99

Revenge is »Beautiful«
Links between Female Violence, colombianidad, narcocultura, and the Revenge Theme
Stefanie Mayer ................................................................. 123

›My Palm and My Trigger Finger Itch, Bitch«
Gangsterism and Female Hustling in Contemporary Hip Hop Culture
Hana Vrdoljak ............................................................... 141

Section III: Firearm Fictions: Media, Genre, and the Making of the Armed Heroine

›On Thursdays We Shoot«
Guns and Gender Binaries in Regency Romance Novels
Johanna Kluger ................................................................. 163

Cowgirling in Thuringia
The German Police Procedural Tatort goes Western
Stefanie Schäfer ................................................................. 181

Violence and the Good Women of Bollywood
Hridaya Ajgaonkar ............................................................. 197

Ladies and Arms
Quasi-Objects in Luc Besson’s Cinema
Jörg Türschmann ............................................................. 215

Not Citizen-Soldiers but Vigilantes
Superheroines in The Old Guard (2020)
Mareike Spychala ............................................................. 225
Section IV: Shooting to Kill (Patriarchy): Feminist Gunwomen

What is a Painter without a Gun?
Nasta Rojc: A Legend for Our Times
Andrea Feldman ................................................................. 245

Unpopular Feminism
The Shooting Woman in John Irving’s The World According to Garp
Simon Dickel ................................................................. 255

Armed Women as Fascinosum Tremendum
Icons, Structures, and Transformations of Gunwomanship in Western Culture
Dagmar Ellerbrock ......................................................... 271

Warrior of the Light
Female Personifications of Ukraine on Mass Media during the Russo-Ukrainian War
Ganna Kolesnyk ............................................................. 293

Authors ................................................................. 317