FRONTIERS OF NARRATIVE STUDIES

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
Shang Biwu, Shanghai Jiao Tong University, China

CO-EDITORS
William Baker, Northern Illinois University, USA
Wolfgang G. Müller, Friedrich Schiller University, Jena, Germany

EDITORIAL BOARD
Péter Hajdu, Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Hungary
David Herman, Durham University, UK
Stefan Iversen, Aarhus University, Denmark
Karin Kukkonen, University of Oslo, Norway
Gunther Martens, Ghent University, Belgium
Brian McHale, Ohio State University, USA
Ansgar Nünning, University of Giessen, Germany
Vera Nünning, University of Heidelberg, Germany
Ruth E. Page, University of Birmingham, UK
James Phelan, Ohio State University, USA
Gerald Prince, University of Pennsylvania, USA
Qiao Guoqiang, Shanghai International Studies University, China
Brian Richardson, University of Maryland, USA
Marie-Laure Ryan, Independent Scholar, USA
Dan Shen, Peking University, China
Michael Toolan, University of Birmingham, UK
Wang Ning, Shanghai Jiao Tong University, China

DE GRUYTER
Contents

Li Zou und Seán Hand
Literary and critical encounters with the Anthropocene: An interview with Seán Hand —— 1

Special Issue: Narratives of ageing in the fantastic mode
Guest Editors: Heike Hartung and Sarah Falcus

Heike Hartung und Sarah Falcus
Introduction: Narratives of ageing in the fantastic mode —— 14

Katharina Fürholzer
Age(ism) in Hans Christian Andersen’s fairy tales —— 20

James Aaron Green
“Old things made new”: Transfusive rejuvenescence in M. E. Braddon’s “Good Lady Ducayne” and H. G. Wells’s “The Story of the Late Mr. Elvesham” —— 35

Andrea Zittlau
“Inside many of us / is a small old man” – age/ing in Anne Sexton’s Transformations: A community discussion —— 54

Marta Miquel-Baldellou
“It made her age hard to guess”: Narrating the dynamics of aging and gender through Victorian Gothic archetypes in Susan Hill’s The Woman in Black —— 69

Maricel Oró-Piqueras und Yuliia Benderska
The wisdom of intergenerational relationships in Ursula Le Guin’s series Annals of the Western Shore (Gifts, Voices and Powers) —— 87

Zuzanna Zarebska
Éilís Ní Dhuibhne’s Little Red and Other Stories and gerotranscendence on the page —— 102

Katsura Sako und Sarah Falcus
Futurity, the life course and aging in Kazuo Ishiguro’s Klara and the Sun —— 121
General section

Theresa Krampe
Rewriting rules, changing worlds: Diegetic and ludic forms of metareference in The Magic Circle —— 137

Mengni Kang
Unresolved conflicts and suspended ethics: Reading “The Monster” from the perspective of voice —— 158