CONTENTS

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction 1

The Apocalyptic Motivation of Revolutionary Action: The Process of Revolution as Realization of Messianism and the Structural Models of Its Outcome 3

Historiography of the Rise of Islam and the Abbasid and the Fatimid Revolutions 16

1. The Emergence of Apocalyptic Messianism from the Maccabean Nativist Revolution 33

The Authority Structure of the Seleucid Empire and the Religious Background of the Nativist Rebellion in Judaea 34

Revolutionary Power Struggle under Dual Sovereignty and the Second Maccabean Temple-State and the Emergence of Messianism 51

The Institutionalization of Apocalyptic Messianism in the Judaean Desert 69

2. Muhammad’s Constitutive Revolution and Its Apocalyptic Roots 74

The Religious Conditions of Arabia on the Periphery of Three Empires 75

Apocalyptic Messianism and Muhammad’s Revolutionary Motivation 88

Muhammad’s Call and the Formation of Islam as Realized Messianism 101

The Mobilization for Holy Struggle (jihād) and the Unification of Arabia 105

The Succession to Charismatic Leadership and the Suppression of Rival Messiahs 111
3. Civil Wars and the Emergence of Apocalyptic Mahdism
   - The First Civil War and the Umayyad Victory
   - The Second Civil War and the Failed Revolution of the Mawāli in Kufa
   - The Reemergence of Apocalyptic Messianism in the Figure of the Qa’im-Mahdi
   - The Marwanid Counterrevolution and the Development of Sunni Orthodoxy

4. The Self-Destruction of the Umayyad Empire
   - The Structure of the Umayyad Imperial State and the Caliphate of al-Walid II
   - Yazid III and the Failed Revolution from Above
   - The Rebellion of ‘Abdallāh b. Mu’awāyia and the First Hashemite State
   - The Internal Collapse of the Marwanid Regime

5. The Process of the Hashemite Revolution
   - The Outbreak and Process of Revolution in Khurasan
   - Revolutionary Power Struggle from Multiple Sovereignty to Dual Power
   - Ibn al Muqaffa’ and his Manifesto for the Caliphate of the House of ‘Abbās

6. The Integrative and Centralizing Consequences of the Abbasid Realized Mahdism
   - The Reactivation of Millenialism in the Rebellions of Abu Muslim’s Followers in Iran
   - The Defeat of the ‘Alid Mahdi and the Closure of the Hashemite Apocalyptic Messianism
   - The End of the Hashemite Revolution and the Abbasid Autocracy as Realized Mahdism
   - The Integrative Consequences of the Abbasid Revolution

7. Apocalyptic Messianism in the Fatimid Revolution
   - Nomads and Intellectuals in the Process of the Fatimid Revolution
   - The Routinization of Revolutionary Charisma and Its Resacralization into Autocracy in the Fatimid Empire
   - Apocalypse and the Great Resurrection in Mountain Fortresses of Northern Iran

8. The Almohad Revolution of Mahdi Ibn Tumart and the Berbers
   - Dress Rehearsal for Revolution: The Almoravids’ Turn in Power
   - Mahdism and the Revolutionary Power Struggle
   - The Establishment of Patrimonial Monarchy and the Almohad Hierarchy
   - The Consequences of the Berber Revolution of the Mahdi b. Tumart
9. The Islamicate Conceptions of Revolution 291
   The Apocalyptic Idea of Transfer of Sovereignty in Antiquity 292
   Islam’s Social Revolution and Its Persianate Self-Conception 295
   The Mahdist Revolutions of North Africa and the Maghrebi Conception of Revolution 302
   Concluding Remarks 309

   Abbreviations 315
   References 319
   Index 345