

Illustrations and Tables

---

---

Figures

---

Three kinds of wine grapes	15
Two types of gram scales	22
Two styles of fermenter, with a punching-down tool	26
Five-gallon carboy	28
Food-grade siphon tubing	31
Standard fermentation locks	32
Two gauges of hydrometer	33
Test cylinder for sugar measurements	34
Bottle brushes	35
Food-grade plastic bucket	36
Parts of a crusher-stemmer	42
Processing red grapes in a hand-cranked crusher-stemmer	45
Preparing a yeast starter	55
Punching down a fermenting must	59

Taking a sugar reading	65
Parts of an Italian basket press	66
Pressing a red wine	69
Signs of a secondary fermentation	77
Racking and bottling wands	79
Racking a red wine	81
Plastic wine thief	89
Three measuring vessels	92
Bottling a newly made wine	101
White wine mid-fermentation	109
Testing for titratable acidity	182
Tank of compressed gas	231

---

Tables

---

1. How much wine do you want to make?	16
2. Your home winemaking shopping list	37
3. Gallons of water to add to dilute a high-sugar must to 24.5 Brix	49
4. Corrections for hydrometers calibrated to 60°F	180
5. Free sulfur dioxide needed to protect wines at various pH levels	218