CONTENTS

Introduction 1

PART I. DIGNITY’S DISCIPLINING POWER:
THE POLITICS OF PUBLIC HEALTH FROM AIDS TO PREP

1. Fucking with Dignity: Bathhouse Closures and the State’s Degradation of Queer Kinship during the Early AIDS Crisis 29

2. Do You Swallow? Possibilities for Queer Transgression in
New Contexts 63

PART II. PROMOTING SAMENESS OR EMBRACING DIFFERENCE: DISTINCT VISIONS OF DIGNITY IN POPULAR CULTURE

3. Isn’t Straight Still the Default? The Politics of Restraint
in Love, Simon 119

4. Doing the Most: Pose and the Value of Queer Excess 171

PART III. RESPECT VERSUS RESPECTABILITY:
THE COURT’S DEFINITIONS OF DIGNITY

5. Liberal Rulings for Conservative Ends: Manipulating
Dignity from Decriminalization to Marriage Equality 223

6. Is Dignity a Dead End? Alternative Notions of Dignity and the Promise of Our Anti-racist Constitution 263
Conclusion: Doing Dignity Differently: An Anti-stigma Approach 299

Acknowledgments 311

Notes 315

Index 393

About the Authors 405