Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction 1

Ellen Carol DuBois and Richard Cândida Smith

PART I The Essays

1 Elizabeth Cady Stanton, the Long View 17

Vivian Gornick

2 Missed Connections: Abolitionist Feminism in the Nineteenth Century 32

Christine Stansell

3 Elizabeth Cady Stanton, John Stuart Mill, and the Nature of Feminist Thought 50

Barbara Caine

4 Stanton on Self and Community 66

Richard Cândida Smith

5 “The Pivot of the Marriage Relation”: Stanton’s Analysis of Women’s Subordination in Marriage 82

Ellen Carol DuBois

6 “Free Woman Is a Divine Being, the Savior of Mankind”: Stanton’s Exploration of Religion and Gender 93

Kathi Kern

7 Stanton and the Right to Vote: On Account of Race or Sex 111

Ann D. Gordon

8 “Lower Orders,” Racial Hierarchies, and Rights Rhetoric: Evolutionary Echoes in Elizabeth Cady Stanton’s Thought during the Late 1860s 128

Michele Mitchell
Contents

Part II  A Selection of Speeches, Articles, and Essays by Elizabeth Cady Stanton, 1854–1901

1. “Address to the Legislature of New York, Albany, February 14, 1854” 155
2. “Address to the Legislature on Women’s Right of Suffrage, Albany, February 18, 1860” 170
3. “Address to the Tenth National Women’s Rights Convention on Marriage and Divorce, New York City, May 11, 1860” 179
4. “Address to Anniversary of American Equal Rights Association, May 12, 1869, New York City” 187
5. “Subjection of Women” (1875) 206
7. “The Other Side of the Woman Question” (1879) 235
8. “Has Christianity Benefited Woman?” (1885) 243
9. “Divorce versus Domestic Warfare” (1890) 254
10. “The Matriarchate, or Mother-Age” (1891) 264
11. “Worship of God in Man” (1893) 276
12. Selections from The Woman’s Bible (1895, 1898) 282
13. “Our Proper Attitude toward Immigration” (1895) 296
14. “Significance and History of the Ballot” (1898) 301
15. “Progress of the American Woman” (1900) 307

About the Contributors 321

Index 323