CONTENTS

Foreword by Angela Harris .............................. xiii
Preface to the Fourth Edition .......................... xix
Acknowledgments ........................................ xxi

I. INTRODUCTION ............................................. 1
   A. What Is Critical Race Theory? ......................... 3
   B. Early Origins .......................................... 4
   C. Relationship to Previous Movements ..................... 4
   D. Principal Figures ...................................... 6
   E. Spin-Off Movements ................................... 7
   F. Basic Tenets of Critical Race Theory ................. 8
   G. How Much Racism Is There in the World? ............. 11
   H. Organization of This Book ............................. 14
      Questions and Comments for Chapter I ............... 16
      Suggested Readings .................................... 17

II. HALLMARK CRITICAL RACE THEORY THEMES ............. 19
   A. Interest Convergence, Material Determinism, and
      Racial Realism ....................................... 20
   B. Revisionist History ................................... 25
   C. Critique of Liberalism ................................ 26
   D. Structural Determinism ................................ 31
      1. Tools of Thought and the Dilemma of Law Reform ........................................ 32
2. The Empathic Fallacy ..................................... 34
   Classroom Exercise ..................................... 36
3. Serving Two Masters .................................. 37
   Classroom Exercise: Who Should Call the Shots? .... 38
4. Race Remedies Law as a Homeostatic Device ... 39
   Questions and Comments for Chapter II .............. 41
   Suggested Readings ..................................... 43

III. LEGAL STORYTELLING AND NARRATIVE ANALYSIS ........ 45
   A. Opening a Window onto Ignored or Alternative Realities ................................ 48
   B. Counterstorytelling .................................... 51
   C. Cure for Silencing ...................................... 52
   D. Storytelling in Court .................................. 54
   E. Storytelling on the Defensive ......................... 55
      Questions and Comments for Chapter III .......... 56
      Suggested Readings ..................................... 58

IV. LOOKING INWARD ............................................ 59
   A. Intersectionality ....................................... 59
   B. Essentialism and Antiessentialism .................... 64
   C. Nationalism versus Assimilation ...................... 66
      Classroom Exercise ..................................... 71
   D. Racial Mixture ......................................... 71
      Questions and Comments for Chapter IV .......... 73
      Suggested Readings ..................................... 75

V. POWER AND THE SHAPE OF KNOWLEDGE .............. 77
   A. The Black-White Binary ............................... 77
   B. Critical White Studies ................................. 85
Contents

Classroom Exercise ........................................ 92
C. Other Developments: Latino and Asian Critical
   Thought, Critical Race Feminism,
   LGBTQ Theory ............................................. 93
Questions and Comments for Chapter V .................. 98
Suggested Readings ........................................ 100

VI. CRITIQUES AND RESPONSES TO CRITICISM ........ 102
   A. “External” Criticism ................................. 102
      1. Early Critiques ....................................... 102
      2. Trump and His Followers ....................... 104
   B. “Internal” Criticism ................................. 106
      1. The Activist Critiques ......................... 107
      2. Critique of the Intellectual Heart of the Movement .................................. 108
   C. Critical Race Theory as a Method of Inquiry in
      New Fields and Countries .......................... 110
Classroom Exercise ........................................ 110
Questions and Comments for Chapter VI ............... 112
Suggested Readings ........................................ 114

VII. CRITICAL RACE THEORY TODAY .................... 115
   A. Right-Wing Offensive ............................. 115
   B. Front-Burner Issues ............................... 116
      1. Race, Class, Welfare, and Poverty .......... 117
      2. Policing and Criminal Justice ............ 122
      3. Hate Speech, Language Rights, and
         School Curricula ................................ 127
      4. Affirmative Action and Color Blindness ... 132
      5. Globalization and Immigration ............ 138
CONTENTS

6. Voting Rights ........................................ 142
C. Identity .................................................. 143
   Classroom Exercise: Panel on the Intersection of Race and Body Image .................................. 145
D. Critical Empirical Analysis ............................ 146
   Questions and Comments for Chapter VII ........... 149
   Suggested Readings .................................... 152

VIII. CONCLUSION ........................................... 154
   A. The Future ............................................ 154
   B. A Critical Race Agenda for the New Century ...... 156
   C. Likely Responses to the Critical Race Theory
      Movement ............................................. 159
         1. Critical Race Theory Becomes the New Civil Rights Orthodoxy ................................ 159
         2. Critical Race Theory Marginalized and Ignored .... 160
         3. Critical Race Theory Analyzed but Rejected ... 161
         4. Partial Incorporation ............................... 161
   Classroom Exercise .................................... 163
   Questions and Comments for Chapter VIII ........... 164
   Suggested Readings .................................... 165

Glossary of Terms ........................................ 167
Index ......................................................... 189
About the Authors ....................................... 199