Contents

Contributors vii
Acknowledgements xiii

1 Introduction: Theorizing Translanguaging Practices in Higher Education 1
Catherine M. Mazak

Leketi Makalela

3 A Call for (Trans)languaging: The Language Profiles at Roskilde University 29
Petra Daryai-Hansen, Sonja Barfod and Lena Schwarz

4 The Ecology of Language and Translanguaging in a Ukrainian University 50
Bridget A. Goodman

5 Professors Translanguaging in Practice: Three Cases from a Bilingual University 70
Catherine M. Mazak, Fiorelys Mendoza and Lauren Pérez Mangonéz

6 Translanguaging in a Multimodal Mathematics Presentation 91
Peichang He, Haiyan Lai and Angel Lin

7 Multilingual Policies and Practices in Indian Higher Education 121
Cynthia Groff
8 Translanguaging within Higher Education in the United Arab Emirates
   Kevin S. Carroll and Melanie van den Hoven 141

9 Teachers’ Beliefs about Translanguaging Practices
   Aintzane Doiz and David Lasagabaster 157

10 Concluding Remarks: Prestige Planning and Translanguaging in Higher Education
    Kevin S. Carroll 177

Index 186