Figures, Tables and Images

Figures

2.1 Bronfenbrenner’s model 21
2.2 The construction of a rope 22
5.1 Classroom Three floorplan 76
6.1 Social network map – Kritika 92
6.2 Social network map – Padma 96
6.3 Social network map – Rashmi 100
6.4 Social network map – Hande 103
7.1 Graphical representation of students’ speech act data from Table 7.6 114
A2.1 Building the social network map of the class 163
A2.2 Classroom Three social network map 165

Tables

3.1 Classroom Three at the beginning and end of the year 48
3.2 Shifts in class demographics for Classroom Three 48
4.1 Structural parallels between Ellen’s descriptions of the children’s language learning and her own 67
4.2 Parallels and differences in Ellen’s and Lucia’s family language narratives 72
5.1 Schedule according to clock time and classroom time for Classroom Three 77
6.1 Rashmi and Prakesh attempt to evict Hande from the sand table 89
7.1 Students’ English use, vocabulary, and complexity in fall and spring 109
7.2 Kritika’s request 111
7.3 Hande’s request 112
7.4 Rashmi’s request
7.5 Padma’s request (three attempts)
7.6 Percentage of students’ speech acts that were successful or not in each of the three elements
8.1 Kritika as authority figure and dispute settler
8.2 Kritika engages in conversational repair
9.1 Kritika is upset at being misunderstood
9.2 Hande in conversation with herself
A2.1 Students whose parents participated in an interview
A2.2 Matrix of students’ responses to ‘Show me who you like to play with’

Images
Image 1  Hande’s close observation
Image 2  Hande’s carefully timed physical action