Contents

Contributors

vii

Foreword: Examining and Experiencing Academic Discourse Socialization through Collaborative Research

xi

Patricia A. Duff

Introduction: Academic Socialization, International Students and Multilingual Literacies

13

Part 1: Literacy Practices and Identity Development

1 Diversity Matters: Problematizing Academic Discourse Socialization in International Higher Education

3

Peter I. De Costa, Jongbong Lee and Wendy Li

2 Academic Socialization in a Collaborative Research Project: Developing Identities as Emergent Scholars

12

Jongbong Lee and Wendy Li

Part 2: Navigating Resources and Services

5 Second Language Academic Discourse Socialization, Identity and Agency: The Case of a Chinese International Student

29

Xiaowan Zhang

4 Reinventing Transnational Identities and Sponsors

50

Bree Straayer-Gannon and Xiqiao Wang

5 International Chinese Students’ Navigation of Linguistic and Learning Resources

69

Wenyue (Melody) Ma and Curtis Green-Eneix

6 International Students’ Writing Development from an Activity Theory Perspective

90

Myeongeun Son
7 Responding to ELL Students Across Disciplines: Using Education Research to Inform Writing Center Practice
Joseph Cheatle and Scott Jarvie

Part 3: Theoretical and Pedagogical Orientations

8 Shifting from Linguistic to Spatial Repertoires: Extending and Enacting Translingual Perspectives in Our Research and Teaching
Steven Fraiberg

9 Writing about Where We Are from: Writing Across Languages, Genres and Spaces
Xiqiao Wang

Afterword
Wenhao Diao

Index