Contents

The Contributors ................................................................. vi

Section 1: Introduction to the Model of Curriculum Related Assessment ................................. 1

1 The Development of a Model of Curriculum Related Assessment
   Norah Frederickson and Tony Cline ..................................... 2

Section 2: Applying the Cummins Model in the Classroom ................................................. 23

2 Context, Content and Language
   Constant Leung ................................................................... 26

3 Using Curriculum Related Assessment Sheets in the Primary Classroom
   Athene Grimble and Liz Filer ............................................. 41

4 Differentiating the Secondary Curriculum
   Deryn Hall ........................................................................ 53

Section 3: Support for Children with Special Educational Needs ................................. 76

5 The Cummins Framework as a Decision Making Aid for Special Education Professionals Working with Bilingual Children
   Usha Rogers and Alan Pratten ........................................... 77

6 The Application of Cummins' Model to Work with Students with Hearing Impairment
   Ann Robson ....................................................................... 88

Section 4: Bilingual Language Development ................................................................. 98

7 A Study of the Oral Language Proficiency of Portuguese Bilingual Children in London
   Olga Barradas .................................................................. 101

8 A Resource for Assessing the Language Skills of Bilingual Pupils
   Mike Haworth and John Joyce ........................................... 116

Glossary .................................................................................... 146