Contents

Acknowledgements ................................................................. vi
Introduction ........................................................................... 1

Section 1 Evaluation and Assessment

1 Program Evaluation and Student Assessment in British Columbia: A Narrative Account ................................................... 5

Section 2 Curriculum and Instruction

2 Teaching Grammar in French Immersion: An Experimental Study .............................................................. 19

3 Integrating Language and Science in Immersion Classrooms: A Case Study Approach ........................................... 41

4 Current Issues for the Immersion Language Curriculum ............. 86

Section 3 Teacher Education

5 French Immersion Teacher Education: A Study of Two Programs ........................................................................ 100

6 French Immersion Teachers and their Professional Development Needs .............................................................. 117

Conclusions ............................................................................ 131

References ............................................................................. 139

Index ..................................................................................... 151