LIST OF PLATES

Plate 2.1 Cruise passengers interacting with locals in stereotypical attire in Grenada might be considered casual cultural tourists........................................... 24
Plate 2.2 Primary school children from Rome visiting the Vatican Gardens ........34
Plate 2.3 Heritage symbols of Juche doctrine dot the landscape of North Korea .....36
Plate 2.4 Signs of natural seasonality on a heritage trail in New Brunswick, Canada...................................................................................................................41

Plate 3.1 The Guggenheim Museum in Bilbao, Spain, is one of the best known art museums in the world................................................................. 55
Plate 3.2 Li ethnic park/ethnic village in Hainan Province, China .................... 56
Plate 3.3 Sydney Opera House, one of the world’s iconic performance centers....57
Plate 3.4 Ancient Mayan pyramid at Chichen Itza archaeological park, Mexico .....59
Plate 3.5 Bedouin tent for tourists in Israel .......................................................... 63
Plate 3.6 Local people playing a traditional game in Bhutan............................ 63
Plate 3.7 Water festival performed by the Dai people of Yunnan Province, China.... 64
Plate 3.8 Batu Caves, Malaysia, is an important pilgrimage destination for Hindus .... 65
Plate 3.9 A lock on the industrial 1845–1856 Saimaa Canal, which today crosses the border between Finland and Russia.................................................. 67
Plate 3.10 A battlefield attraction (Poland) on the WWII Polish Western Front..... 68
Plate 3.11 A ‘political’ attraction in Reykjavik, Iceland, is the country’s parliament building......................................................................................... 69
Plate 3.12 The footprint of one of the World Trade Center towers at the 9/11 Memorial and Museum in New York City.............................................. 70
Plate 3.13 The Falklands War (Guerra de las Malvinas) memorial in Buenos Aires, Argentina ...................................................................................... 71
Plate 3.14 Part of the vast tea plantation landscapes of Sri Lanka, which are a major tourist attraction ................................................................. 72
Plate 3.15 Many tour groups stop by this tea processing plant in Sri Lanka, which is an important part of the country’s agri-heritage tourism product....... 73
Plate 3.16 A new ‘heritage village’ (Andrićgrad) developed in Bosnia and Herzegovina in honor of one of that country’s literary heroes, Ivo Andrić ........................................................................................................ 74
Plate 3.17 A stopping point on the Barbados Slave Route .................................. 75
Plate 3.18 The Verde Canyon Railroad, Arizona, is one of many such historic railways in the United States ........................................................................ 77
Plate 3.19 The Prince of Wales Hotel in Waterton Lakes National Park, Canada, is a superb example of the old national park hotels in Canada ............... 81
Plate 3.20  This late 16th century castle in Poland is now a hotel, spa and reception center .......................................................... 82

Plate 3.21  An old Soviet-style eatery in modern-day Latvia, provides nostalgic dining experiences from the past .......................................................... 84

Plate 4.1  An example of a global heritage site is the Roman Colosseum ................. 95
Plate 4.2  The Australian War Memorial in Canberra is a good example of national heritage .................................................................................. 96
Plate 4.3  This small memorial in a village in Carrizal, Mexico, marks the location of a skirmish between US and Mexican troops in the Mexican Revolution .................................................................................. 97
Plate 4.4  Family history centers, such as this one on Ellis Island, New York, are important attractions for personal heritage tourists ...................... 98
Plate 4.5  The historic city of Bern, Switzerland, is an attractive cultural destination and a UNESCO World Heritage Site ........................................................................................................ 100
Plate 4.6  The rural landscape of Andorra with the village of Pal is an important part of that microstate’s heritage ambience .......................................................... 102

Plate 5.1  The Eiffel Tower in Macau, an inauthentic reproduction? .................. 113
Plate 5.2  A Mexican and/or Southwestern US-themed shopping village in Sedona, Arizona, provides a fabricated ‘foreign’ heritage environment ........................................................................................................ 117
Plate 5.3  A traditional clog maker demonstrating his skills in the Netherlands .............................................................................................................. 118
Plate 5.4  These Native American rugs are ‘certified’ authentic by their creators ................................................................................................. 119
Plate 5.5  ‘Ozification’ of Wamego, Kansas, one of several ‘authentic’ locations of Oz ............................................................................................... 122
Plate 5.6  This Aboriginal village show in Taiwan includes some Han Chinese cast members. Should it be considered ‘authentic’? ...................................................... 125

Plate 6.1  This ‘slave pen’ is part of a more balanced and inclusive narrative of the lives of slaves in the American South and provides a louder voice to the traditionally voiceless ............................................................................. 136
Plate 6.2  The built British, Dutch and Portuguese colonial heritage has been largely embraced and long played a key role in the tourism product of Malacca, Malaysia ........................................................................................................ 138
Plate 6.3  The Temple Mount in Jerusalem is one of the most hotly contested heritagescapes in the entire world. On the far left is the Al-Aqsa Mosque; in the center is the Dome of the Rock ........................................ 141
Plate 6.4  The Great Mosque of the Umayyads in Damascus, Syria, is part of the UNESCO World Heritage Site of the Ancient City of Damascus, which is in danger from the Syrian Civil War ........................................... 144
Plate 6.5  Border crossing into the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus. Boycotts against crossing into Turkish-occupied Cyprus meant heavy regulations for many years ........................................................................................................ 145
Plate 6.6  For economic and political protectionism, tourists in Bhutan are required to enter or leave the country using the national airline, Drukair ........................................ 146
Plate 6.7  This Soviet Lifestyle Museum in St Petersburg, Russia, is a popular attraction for people interested in political history and ‘nostalgia tourists’ who might have lived through that period of history ........................................... 149
Plate 6.8  The site of the first National Congress of the Communist Party of China is an important ‘red tourism’ attraction in Shanghai, which draws many Chinese citizens and foreign tourists ........................................ 150
Plate 6.9  The destroyed Mostar Bridge (a UNESCO site) in Bosnia and Herzegovina before its reconstruction ................................................................. 151

Plate 7.1  Long queues of tourists waiting to enter St Peter’s Basilica in Vatican City ........................................................................................................ 163
Plate 7.2  Indian teepee being commodified in Arizona, where teepees never originally existed .................................................................................................. 167
Plate 7.3  Centuries of walking on this grave in the Monastery of Alcobaça, Portugal, have worn away the details of this 17th century tombstone .......... 170
Plate 7.4  Tourist vandalism is a problem in the Roman Colosseum ................. 171
Plate 7.5  Rome’s famous Trevi Fountain was covered for restoration and cleaning in 2015 ................................................................. 173

Plate 8.1  Ellis Island Immigration Museum is an example of legislated heritage protection under the care of the US National Park Service ............... 189
Plate 8.2  Maintaining and interpreting Hadrian’s Wall is a major undertaking for English Heritage ................................................................................................. 192
Plate 8.3  Although Albania is not yet a European Union member, this restoration project at Berat was funded by the EU ........................................... 194
Plate 8.4  UNESCO marker in the historic city of Riga, Latvia, a country that strongly values its World Heritage Sites ........................................................ 201

Plate 9.1  The archaeological site of Çatalhöyük, Turkey, provides information about Neolithic life ................................................................................................. 209
Plate 9.2  The Church of Sant Joan de Caselles in Andorra is a good example of 11th century Romanesque architecture ......................................................... 211
Plate 9.3  An example of adaptive re-use, these historic train cars now function as tourist lodging ............................................................................................... 214
Plate 9.4  Efforts to retard deterioration of ancient Native American ruins at Casa Grande National Monument, AZ, USA .............................................. 215
Plate 9.5  Example of a medieval house in the Netherlands with visible renovations ................................................................. 217
Plate 9.6  Vianden Castle, Luxembourg, was restored in the 1970s from ruins to its 14th century form ................................................................. 218
Plate 9.7  Darling Harbor, Sydney, Australia, exemplifies waterfront redevelopment for tourism and recreation ...................................................... 222
Plate 9.8 Longmen Grottoes World Heritage Site has suffered considerable damage from industrial pollution over the years, as well as vandalizing of its Buddha statues. ................................................................. 231
Plate 9.9 The Old Town of Dubrovnik was collateral damage during the 1990s Yugoslav wars, but it has since been restored and is one of Croatia’s most important destinations. ................................................................. 233
Plate 9.10 The international border divides the city of Valga (Estonia) and Valka (Latvia). Both sides work collaboratively to help protect their common heritage and develop their joint tourism products............ 234
Plate 9.11 The famous Church of the Savior on Spilled Blood in St Petersburg, Russia, undergoing some cleaning, renovations and protection against natural deterioration.............................. 236
Plate 10.1 Students visiting Castell de Sant Ferran in Figueres, Catalonia, Spain, as part of their formal university curriculum................................. 247
Plate 10.2 An actor at Plimoth Plantation, MA, USA, helps create an entertaining and educational cultural experience................................. 250
Plate 10.3 Signage helps direct tourists away from sensitive or dangerous areas .... 251
Plate 10.4 At the Forbidden City in Beijing, China, tourists can purchase the services of a live guide or a recorded guide, which helps heritage managers maintain the city’s cultural assets................................. 252
Plate 10.5 A Māori guide in Rotorua, New Zealand, interprets Māori culture for tourists........................................................................................................ 254
Plate 10.6 Li ethnic minority women in China demonstrate the traditional art of weaving........................................................................................ 255
Plate 10.7 Brochures are available in many languages at the Dali Museum, in Figueres, Catalonia, Spain................................................................. 256
Plate 10.8 This placard helps interpret the history of Hadrian’s Wall, England...... 256
Plate 10.9 This scale model of Grodno, Belarus, helps tourists appreciate the layout of the historic city ................................................................. 257
Plate 10.10 Audio devices such as this one help visitors tour museums, archaeological areas and historic cities................................................. 258
Plate 10.11 Visitors at the National Museum of African American History and Culture use interactive technology to search for information ............ 259
Plate 10.12 This augmented reality technology is becoming more commonplace in heritage tourism contexts...................................................... 260
Plate 10.13 This virtual reality technology allows visitors to touch a location on the globe, after which places of cultural tourism interest from that location appear on the screen .............................................. 260
Plate 10.14 Artificial intelligence, such as this robot at a heritage museum in China, will likely become more mainstream in the heritage interpretive experience in the future ........................................... 261
Plate 10.15 This interpretive medium in Macau provides information in Chinese, Portuguese and English .............................................................. 263
Plate 10.16  This interpretive sign in Ireland is written both in English and in Gaeltacht, which is important for the Gaelic-speaking Irish and foreign tourists .................................................................................................. 265
Plate 10.17  Braille on this medium in Krakow, Poland, helps people with visual impairments get more out of their visit ......................................................... 266
Plate 11.1  Creating heritage zones, such as this one, can be a valuable planning tool to help manage resources and cultural area marketing ............................................... 280
Plate 11.2  Physical planning at specific heritage sites include zoning for parking, toilets, ticket booths, and entrance gates such as this one in Luoyang, China .................................................................................................. 281
Plate 11.3  This pedestrian zone in Guilin, China, contributes to the city’s historic ambience .............................................................................................. 282
Plate 11.4  Muskau Park is a UNESCO World Heritage Site that straddles the Polish-German border and requires collaborative planning and management .................................................................................................. 291
Plate 12.1  For many tourists, the iconic Great Wall symbolizes the essence of China .............................................................................................................. 301
Plate 12.2  This cultural theme park in China is rated a 5-A attraction, which is a coveted brand in that country and signifies its importance in tourism .................................................................................................. 302
Plate 12.3  The Anne of Green Gables visitor center and its adjacent Avonlea filming set in Prince Edward Island are iconic symbols for this Canadian province and illustrate the importance of literary heritage and film-based tourism .................................................................................................. 303
Plate 12.4  The Zuni tribe in New Mexico, USA, uses ‘authenticity’ as a catchword in its roadside marketing ..................................................................................... 312
Plate 13.1  Admission prices for foreigners at this museum in Bhutan are 10 times higher than for Bhutanese ................................................................................ 323
Plate 13.2  A donation box at a religious heritage site helps the managing organization raise maintenance funds ........................................................... 324
Plate 13.3  This museum shop at the Museum of Macau is an important revenue source ............................................................................................................ 325
Plate 13.4  Intangible heritage-based souvenir sales at an ethnic park in Hainan, China, raise funds and employ minority peoples .................................................................................................. 326
Plate 13.5  This traditional Japanese ryokan provides overnight lodging for visitors at a World Heritage Site ................................................................................ 327
Plate 13.6  Food sales, such as at this traditional noodle shop in China, can help heritage sites earn extra income ........................................................................ 328
Plate 13.7  Extra income is earned at the ruins of Caesarea, Israel, by hosting a wedding reception .................................................................................................... 329
Plate 13.8  The European Union provided a grant to St Lucia in 2010 to help the Caribbean country protect its intangible heritage related to music and dance ................................................................. 330
Plate 13.9  Railings keep tourists from touching ancient Native American rock art .... 332
Plate 13.10  This border heritage trail on the Poland-German border is well ‘hardened’ on the Baltic Sea coast .......................................................... 333
Plate 13.11  In 2019, extreme overcrowding on the Spanish Steps in Rome led the city to restrict people from sitting or resting on the steps – walking and standing room only ........................................... 334
Plate 13.12  Dune-accessible wheelchairs at Great Sand Dunes National Park helps facilitate the needs of people with physical disabilities, enhancing their experience and that of their travel companions .......... 337

Plate 14.1  A local museum in the village of Gozdowice, Poland .......................... 348
Plate 14.2  This philatelic (stamp) museum in Singapore is representative of museums for specialized interests and niche markets ............................... 351
Plate 14.3  The KGB Museum in Riga, Latvia, appeals to spy novel fans, espionage enthusiasts and political history buffs ........................................ 352
Plate 14.4  The Dalí Theater and Museum in Figueres, Catalonia, which commemorates the life and art of Salvador Dalí, is a world-famous anchor attraction in northeastern Spain that draws millions of visitors each year ......................................................... 354
Plate 14.5  Museu Afro Brasil in Sao Paolo, is an ethnographic museum dedicated to the history of Black Brazilians and their stories of slavery ..... 355
Plate 14.6  Multisensory technology, such as this in Finland, which embraces video, audio, lighting, scents and wind, has considerable potential for interpreting heritage places and adding market value to museums and cultural products ................................................................. 359

Plate 15.1  This partially restored ancient amphitheater in Caesarea, Israel, doubles as a venue for modern performances ........................................ 368
Plate 15.2  Volunteers at this Native American archaeological site help dig, measure, catalogue, screen and clean ..................................................... 370
Plate 15.3  This area of the Roman section of Empúries archaeological park has not been excavated ........................................................................ 376
Plate 15.4  The temple of Bacchus in Baalbek, Lebanon, is one of the best preserved Roman temples in the world and was featured on the country’s 50 pound banknote from the 1960s to the 1990s .......... 377
Plate 16.1  The Winter Palace in St Petersburg, Russia, was the royal residence of the Russian czars until the early 20th century when the monarchy was deposed by the Bolsheviks ......................................................... 387
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Plate</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>16.2</td>
<td>Built in 1580, the Casa de la Vall was home to Andorra’s parliament from 1702 until 2011.</td>
<td>388</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16.3</td>
<td>This French village and rural landscape reaffirm the romantic image of France and create an unmistakable tourism appeal.</td>
<td>389</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16.4</td>
<td>This rural landscape adds cultural appeal to Myanmar’s rural charm.</td>
<td>390</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16.5</td>
<td>Denmark’s rural idyll is enhanced by agrarian heritage landscapes such as this one.</td>
<td>391</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16.6</td>
<td>This native Australian demonstrates traditional ‘bush tucker’ to tourists at an Aboriginal cultural center.</td>
<td>393</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16.7</td>
<td>Wine routes, such as this one in the Western Cape, South Africa, link viticulture heritage sites together into linear tourism products.</td>
<td>394</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>17.1</td>
<td>Early spinning machines such as this one helped usher in the Industrial Revolution.</td>
<td>402</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>17.2</td>
<td>This derelict mining industrial assemblage in Michigan, USA, creates a unique and eerily attractive cultural landscape with significant tourism potential.</td>
<td>405</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>17.3</td>
<td>Itaipu Dam on the border of Paraguay and Brazil draws visitors interested in its construction and energy-generation functions.</td>
<td>406</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>17.4</td>
<td>Touring copper mines above and underground is one of the most important tourist activities in Michigan’s Upper Peninsula.</td>
<td>407</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>17.5</td>
<td>Tuna fishing and processing has long been an important economic sector in the Maldives. Nearly all of the country’s cuisine is tuna based, and much of the national ethos revolves around this industrial sector.</td>
<td>409</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>18.1</td>
<td>The Helsinki Cathedral is one of the most popular tourist attractions in Finland’s capital city.</td>
<td>419</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>18.2</td>
<td>The location of Buddha’s birthplace in Nepal draws many visitors each year.</td>
<td>424</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>18.3</td>
<td>Kushinagar, India, is known as the place where Buddha died and is one of Buddhism’s holiest sites.</td>
<td>425</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>18.4</td>
<td>Local worshippers and tourists alike pray at the Western Wall in Jerusalem.</td>
<td>426</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>18.5</td>
<td>The Salt Lake Temple in Utah, is one of the most prominent religious attractions in the western United States.</td>
<td>427</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>18.6</td>
<td>The Itsukushima Shinto shrine, is an iconic heritage symbol of Japan, a revered sacred site and part of a UNESCO World Heritage Site.</td>
<td>428</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>18.7</td>
<td>Among many protestant Christians, the Garden Tomb in Jerusalem is thought to be the burial chamber of Jesus.</td>
<td>429</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>18.8</td>
<td>Christian tourists at the ruins of the synagogue of Capernaum, which the New Testament describes as a key location in the ministry of Jesus.</td>
<td>430</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Plate 18.9 The ritual bath in the Ganges at Varanasi, India, is an important part of Hindu religious heritage ................................................................. 431
Plate 18.10 The Camino de Santiago is one of the most famous religious routes in the world. It has many branches in several countries of Europe, such as this one passing through Przemysł, Poland................................. 432
Plate 18.11 A reminder for tourists to respect local religious traditions and sacred space .............................................................................................. 433
Plate 19.1 Roots tourists often visit and gather information from old cemeteries such as this one in England ................................................................. 446
Plate 19.2 The Family History Library in Salt Lake City is the largest genealogy library in the world and a very important tourist attraction among roots-seekers and genealogy tourists ................................................................. 447
Plate 19.3 A Birthright Israel bus waits for Jewish-American youth tourists near Tel Aviv .................................................................................................................. 450
Plate 19.4 The immigrant village of Solvang, CA, is a popular destination for its Danish cultural landscape, food and festivals ........................................... 452
Plate 19.5 The Amish landscape of Pennsylvania shows the group’s rejection of most modern conveniences ................................................................. 453
Plate 20.1 Water calligraphy is practiced by artisans daily in China as a form of exercise and maintaining their artistic skills ........................................... 463
Plate 20.2 Traditional firewalking is a salient part of Fiji’s folklore and has evolved into a major tourist spectacle ................................................................. 464
Plate 20.3 This Māori cultural center in Rotorua is a popular stop on New Zealand tours .................................................................................................................. 467
Plate 20.4 This Navajo eagle dancer performs for visitors in Arizona, USA .......... 468
Plate 20.5 The Puebloan Native Americans living in Taos Pueblo, NM, USA, are highly empowered and have a great deal of control over tourists’ visitation at their village. Taos Pueblo is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and a US National Historic Landmark ................................................................. 470
Plate 20.6 A group of Taiwan’s Aboriginal people performing traditional music at the popular Sun Moon Lake tourist hotspot ................................................................. 472
Plate 20.7 The Tjapukai Aboriginal Cultural Park near Cairns, Australia, is where the Tjapukai Australian natives demonstrate their cultural traditions .......... 474
Plate 21.1 Alcatraz Island, California, is one of the most famous prisons in the United States and a major heritage attraction in San Francisco .................. 488
Plate 21.2 The site of the former WWII Jasenovac concentration camp in Croatia, where Jews, Romas and ethnic Serbs were targeted for extermination by the Independent State of Croatia at that time .............. 489
Plate 21.3 The Door of No Return, in Ouidah, Benin, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site that memorializes the enslaved Africans who were shipped overseas and sold into slavery ................................................................. 492
Plate 21.4 Much of the tourism product of Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina, continues to focus on the Bosnian War of the 1990s ........................................... 494

Plate 21.5 The A-bomb Dome at the Hiroshima Peace Memorial in Japan is one of the most symbolic sites of WWII in Asia.................................................. 496

Plate 21.6 Remnants of the Japanese occupation of many Pacific islands during WWII are part of Kiribati’s most important heritage attractions (Photo courtesy of Spencer A. Timothy) ....................................................... 497

Plate 21.7 The House of Terror in Budapest is a museum that focuses on the atrocities of fascism and communism in 20th century Europe...................... 499

Plate 21.8 The Brest Fortress in Belarus contains many monuments to Soviet-era heroes and is celebrated as a nostalgic attraction reminiscent of the Soviet communist era .................................................... 500

Plate 21.9 This esthetically pleasing cemetery in Taiwan is a popular location for memorializing dead ancestors and is visited by residents and tourists alike ....................................................................................................... 503

Plate 21.10 This small memorial in Barbados commemorates the terrorist attack on a commercial Cuban airliner in 1976, which killed everyone on board ............................................................................................................. 505

Plate 21.11 One of the best-selling tour products of New Orleans is haunted tours, cemetery tours and dead tours ....................................................... 507

Plate 22.1 This ‘volunteers needed’ sign is indicative of the importance that museums and other heritage localities place on volunteer workers............. 519

Plate 22.2 The Grand Canyon, USA, is a wonder of natural heritage, a major tourist attraction in Arizona and a UNESCO World Heritage Site ......... 520

Plate 22.3 Jerome, AZ, a former mining town, has now reinvented itself into a ‘tourist-shopping village’, popular among day-trippers, weekend visitors and industrial heritage enthusiasts for its shops, wineries, restaurants and B&Bs ................................................................................................. 522

Plate 22.4 A waymarker along the Lewis and Clark Trail in the US state of Montana ................................................................................................. 524

Plate 22.5 This ‘info terminal’ in Görlitz, Germany, provides interpretive information about the historic city and provides free wifi service to visitors ...................................................................................................... 526

Plate 22.6 The pillar in the background marks the French-Spanish border at Panissars. These ancient Roman ruins are bisected by the international boundary, which requires close cooperation for their protection and maintenance ............................................................................. 530

Plate 22.7 The small town of Prats de Lluçanès, a Catalanian heritage stronghold, declared itself a municipality in the sovereign Republic of Catalonia during Catalonia’s struggle for its independence from Spain .... 532