Contents

List of Figures, Tables, Boxes, and Appendices  vii
Foreword by Sir Fazle Hasan Abed  xi
Preface  xvii
Biographies  xxiii

Part One: Diagnostics: Chronic Quality Deficit in South Asia’s Basic Education  3

1 Growth, Well-Being, and Basic Education  7
2 From “Education for All” to SDG4  18
3 Assessing Primary School Performance in Reading and Mathematics  36
4 Why Does Low Quality Persist in South Asian Schools?  54
5 The Sri Lanka Exception and Its Stubborn Challenges  76

Part Two: Teachers: The Pivot of Educational Change  89

6 The Education Workforce – Numbers and More  93
7 Who Should Be Teachers – Features of a High-Quality Education Workforce  98
8 How Teachers Can Be Professionals – Preparing and Orienting the Education Workforce  114
9 Governance and Management of the Education Workforce  126
10 Ethics and Values Education and Teachers  145
Part Three: The Political Economy of Educational Reform 157

11 Private Schools and Public Good 161
12 Toward a New Education Governance Paradigm 180
13 Political Economy of Education – Leveraging Change 205

References 217

Index 229