

Contents

List of Graphs, Tables, and Figures ix

Authorship xiii

Acknowledgments xvii

Abbreviations xix

- 1 Mapping the Enforcement Gap: Historical and Contemporary Dynamics 3

Part One: Charting the Employment Standards Enforcement Gap in Ontario

- 2 Responsibilization, Reprisal, and (Non-)Remediation: Interrogating the Role of an Individualized Complaints System 59
- 3 Administering Complaints: Dilemmas of Accountability 78
- 4 Recovering Employees' Wages? 97
- 5 The Contradictory Role of Workplace Inspections 124
- 6 The Deterrence Gap: Towards an Explanation 147
- 7 Strengthening Participatory Approaches to Enforcement 177

Part Two: Views from Elsewhere: Contextualizing the Employment Standards Enforcement Gap in Ontario

- 8 Unpaid Britain: Challenges of Enforcement and Wage Recovery 201
- 9 Out of the Shadows and into the Spotlight: The Sweeping Evolution of Employment Standards Enforcement in Australia 221

viii Contents

- 10 Enforcing Employment Standards in Quebec: One Step Forward, Two Steps Backward? 242
- 11 Improving Workplace Conditions through Strategic Enforcement: The U.S. Experience 260
- 12 Improving Employment Standards Enforcement for People in Precarious Jobs 279

Supplementary Information on Quantitative and Qualitative Methods: Ontario Component 293

Appendix A: Quantitative Data 294

Appendix B: Qualitative Data 298

Appendix C: Archival Research 326

Glossary 329

Notes 351

Bibliography 375

Index 415