Contents

Acknowledgments  ix

Introduction: Towards a Relational Ethics with Nature  3

1 Bound by Reasonableness  33

2 Vulnerability and the Need for Care  54

3 To Think and Act Ecologically: The Environment, Human Animality, Nature  79

4 What Vulnerability Entails: Sustainability and the Limits of Political Pluralism  103

5 Nature’s Relations: Ontology, Vulnerability, Agency  129

6 The Democracy of the Neglected: Mutual Understanding and Sustainability in a World of Many Worlds  155

Conclusion: Retrieving Nature  182

Bibliography  207

Index  223