Contents

Foreword by S. D. Clark vii

PART ONE: ORIGINS AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE NATIONAL POLICY

I The National Policy: A Matter of Definition 3
II Agriculture and the Investment Frontier before Confederation 9
III The Western Territories and the National Policy in Its Formative Years 25
IV Development and Integration of the National Policy 40
V Establishment and Growth of the Wheat Economy 70

PART TWO: GRAIN MARKETING PROBLEMS IN WESTERN CANADA, 1900–20

VI The National Policy: Competition and Monopoly 87
VII Local Elevators and the Monopoly Issue before 1910 103
VIII Co-operation and Provincial Elevator Policy 127
IX Western Protest and Dominion Policy 153

PART THREE: THE OPEN MARKET REJECTED

X The Open Market System in the Inter-War Years 177
XI The Wheat Pools and the Open Market System: Origins of the Pools 196
XII Marketing Policies of the Canadian Wheat Pools 219
XIII A Résumé of Experience with Contract Pools 243
XIV From Open Market to Compulsory Board 256

PART FOUR: CONCLUSION

XV The National Policy and the Wheat Economy 281

Bibliography 299
Index 303