Contents

Foreword vii
Josiah Blackmore

Introduction 1
Carrie L. Ruiz and Elena Rodríguez-Guridi

1 Turbulent Waters: Shipwreck in María de Zayas’s “Tarde llega el desengaño” 9
Carrie L. Ruiz

2 Two Small and Two Large Imperial Shipwrecks by Miguel de Cervantes and Luis de Góngora 27
Julio Baena

3 The Reader as Castaway: Problematics of Reading Soledades by Luis de Góngora 40
Elena Rodríguez-Guridi

4 On Moral Truth and the Controversy over the Amerindians: The Relación (1542) by Alvar Núñez Cabeza de Vaca 59
Natalio Ohanna

5 The Discourse of Poverty in Alvar Núñez Cabeza de Vaca’s Naufragios 76
Fernando Rodríguez Mansilla

6 Shipwreck, Exile, and Political Critique in Fernán Méndez Pinto (1631) by Antonio Enríquez Gómez 91
Carmen Hsu
7 The Manila Galleon Shipwrecks: Writing Crisis and Decline in the Spanish Global Empire 109
Ana M. Rodríguez-Rodríguez

8 The Shipwreck of the Manila Galleon San Felipe in Seventeenth-Century Histories and Accounts on Japan 122
Noemí Martín Santo

Bibliography 141
Notes on Contributors 155
Index 159