Contents

Foreword
Reconfiguring the Politics of Knowledge: Writing Transnational Black Feminism from the South
CHRI STEN A. SM ITH

Introduction
KEISHA-KHAN Y. PERRY AND MELANIE A. MEDEIROS

1
Reclaiming a Legacy: Black Women’s Presence and Perspectives in the Brazilian Social Sciences
EDILZA CORREIA SOTERO

2
Beyond Intercultural Mestiza je: Toward Black Women’s Studies on the Caribbean Coast of Nicaragua
MELANIE WHITE

3
MAZIKI THAME

4
Exercising Diversity: From Identity to Alliances in Brazil’s Contemporary Black Feminism
JULIA S. ABDALLA

5
“This Isn’t to Get Rich”: Double Morality and Black Women Private Tutors in Cuba
ANGELA CRUMDY
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chapter</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Authors</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>A “Bundle of Silences”: Untold Stories of Black Women Survivors of the War in Colombia</td>
<td>Castriela E. Hernández-Reyes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7</td>
<td>The Burden of Las Bravas: Race and Violence against Afro-Peruvian Women</td>
<td>Eshe L. Lewis</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8</td>
<td>A Creole Christmas: Sexual Panic and Reproductive Justice in Bluefields, Nicaragua</td>
<td>Ishan Gordon-Ugarte</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9</td>
<td>Digital Black Feminist Activism in Brazil: Toward a Repoliticization of Aesthetics and Romantic Relationships</td>
<td>Bruna Cristina Jaquetto Pereira and Cristiano Rodrigues</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Notes on Contributors

Index