

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	3
I. POLITICAL QUESTIONS IN CASES INVOLVING INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS	8
Constitutional Powers and Constitutional Understandings	8
The Formal and the Dynamic Aspects of the Theory of “Political Questions”	12
International Law in the Prize Courts	41
Questions of Sovereign Immunity	51
Questions of Neutrality	54
Questions Involved in International Controversies	56
Interpretation of Treaties	66
II. THE THEORY AND PRACTICE OF RECOGNITION	79
The Theory of Recognition	79
The Practice of Recognition	103
III. NON-RECOGNITION AND THE COURTS	124
History of Doctrine	124
The Unrecognized Power as Plaintiff	140
Immunities of an Unrecognized Power	156
What is “the Law” of an Unrecognized Power?	162
Legal Effect of the Acts of Unrecognized Powers	176
IV. RECOGNITION AND THE COURTS	199
Must Recognition be “Explicit”?	199
The Extent to which Recognition Concludes the Courts	207
Territorial Questions	223
CONCLUSION	233
APPENDIX	237
TABLES	241
Cases	243
Statutes, Treaties, and Diplomatic Correspondence	251
Secondary Authorities	253
INDEX	259

