

CONTENTS

I. AIMS IN THE TEACHING OF THE VISUAL ARTS	3
Introductory, 3. Drawing and painting as a normal means of expression, 10. Understanding and appreciation of art as a part of our cultural heritage, 13. The raising of standards of production — contemporary art in relation to the art of the past, 20; training of the public in discrimination, 23; training of the artist, 32.
II. A RATIONAL PROGRAM	43
Scope and limitations, 43. The school, 48; summary of work at school level — elementary schools, 61; high schools, 62. The college, 65; summary of work at college level, 75. The graduate school, 78; summary of work at graduate or professional school level, 109. Schools for workers in various arts or trades, 113. Museums, 119.
III. CONCLUSION	125
APPENDIX — THE THEORY OF THE VISUAL ARTS	135
Introductory, 137. The terms of vision, 139. Art and aesthetic experience, 141. The principles of order, and their application to the terms of vision, 142. Drawing and painting in the mode of pure design, 144. Representation in drawing and painting, 145. Pictorial design, 149. Design in sculpture, 150. Design in architectural and other structural arts, 150. Technical procedures, 150.

