
Contents

1	Introduction: The Nature of Political Participation	1
	The Role of Political Participation	1
	A Core Definition of Political Participation	4
	Mobilized versus Autonomous Participation	7
	Levels, Forms, and Bases of Political Participation	10
	The Causes of Participation	15
2	Goals and Choices: Participation in the Context of Development	17
	Models of Development	17
	The Choices of Political Elites	28
	Participation in Development: Goal, Means, or By-Product	40
3	Development, Equality, and Participation	42
	The Relations Among These Variables	42
	The Impact of Development on Levels of Participation	43
	The Impact of Development on Patterns of Participation	53
	The Impact of Socio-Economic Equality on Political Participation	64
	The Impact of Participation on Development and Equality	71

Contents

4	Mobility, Organization, and Participation	79
	Participation at the Micro Level	79
	Socio-Economic Status and Political Participation	80
	Group Consciousness and Political Participation	85
	Alternatives: Individual Mobility versus Group Organization	93
	Sequences: Individual Mobility and Group Organization	103
	Conclusion	112
5	Political Participation by the Poor	116
	Obstacles to Participation by the Poor	116
	Patterns of Participation by the Poor: An Overview	122
	Mobilized Participation	125
	Individual Contacting for Particularized Benefits	132
	Small-scale Special-Interest Associations	134
	Cross-class Participation	147
	Large-scale Organizations Oriented to the Lower Classes	151
6	Conclusion: The Routes to Political Participation	159
	The Complexity of Political Participation	159
	Political Participation as a Goal of Development	160
	Political Participation as a Means to Development	161
	Political Participation as a By-Product of Development	166
	Notes	175
	Index	189

NO EASY CHOICE

