Social work with people with learning difficulties

Making a difference

Susan Hunter and Denis Rowley
Series editors: Viviene Cree, University of Edinburgh and Steve Myers, University of Salford

This important series sets new standards in introducing social workers to the ideas, values and knowledge base necessary for professional practice. These core texts are designed for students undertaking professional training at all levels as well as fulfilling the needs of qualified staff seeking to update their skills or move into new areas of practice.

Editorial advisory board:
Suzy Braye, University of Sussex
Jim Campbell, Goldsmith's University of London
Gina Hardesty, Independent Consultant
Ravi Kohli, University of Bedfordshire
Jill Manthorpe, King's College London
Kate Morris, University of Nottingham
Joan Orme, University of Nottingham
Alison Shaw, Policy Press
Charlotte Williams, RMIT University, Australia

Published titles in the series
Social work - Viviene Cree and Steve Myers
Social work and multi-agency working - Kate Morris
Youth justice in practice - Bill Whyte
Radical social work in practice - Iain Ferguson and Rona Woodward
Religion, belief and social work - Sheila Furness and Philip Gilligan
Communicating with children and young people - Michelle Lefevre
Social work and lesbian, gay, bisexual and trans people - Julie Fish
Supporting people with alcohol and drug problems - Sarah Galvani
Social work in the community - Barbra Teater and Mark Baldwin
Residential child care in practice - Mark Smith, Leon Fulcher and Peter Doran
Effective writing for social work - Lucy Rai
Practice research partnerships in social work - Christa Fouché