Contents

List of figures, tables and boxes vii
Notes on contributors viii
Acknowledgements xiii
Preface xiv

one  Introduction
Christopher Durkin and Robert Gunn
Chapter descriptions 1

Part One: Skills in policy analysis 5 two The place of social enterprise in UK contemporary policy 7
Ian Buchanan
Introduction: history and context 7
Parameters of third sector activity and social enterprises 8
The influence of policy on social enterprises 8
Market influence on the development of social enterprises 10
The future and sustainability of social enterprises 13
Conclusion 16

three A changing context 19
Christopher Durkin
Social impact measurement 21

four What do we mean by ‘social enterprise’? Defining social entrepreneurship 23
Gladius Kulothungan
Introduction 23
The backdrop of capitalism 23
Why social enterprises? 24
Situating social enterprises 25
Defining social enterprises 26
Broad and narrow definitions 26
Recognising opportunities 28
The idea of social innovation 28
Social enterprises as hybrid organisations 29
Characteristics of social enterprises 29
Emergence of social enterprises 30
Conclusion 30

Part Two: Skills for social entrepreneurship 33
five Identifying need 35
Richard Bryant
Introduction 35
Defining need 35
Identifying community need 39
Skills for identifying need 45
Conclusion 47

Social entrepreneurship

six  Stakeholder participation and involvement in social enterprises  51

Christopher Durkin and Robert Gunn
Introduction  51
Social policy context  52
Where do social enterprises fit within this changing landscape?  55
Stakeholder participation and involvement  57
Power  59
Conclusion  61

seven  Design thinking for social innovation  65

Mik Pieniazek
Design thinking as a discursive exploration for creative solutions  65
Design thinking as a participatory community of innovation  65
Design thinking as a contextual inquiry  66
Design thinking as a means of understanding the context of social innovation  67
Design thinking as a creative synergy  67
Design thinking process  68
Design thinking as a future resource  69

eight  The financing of social enterprise  71

Wray Irwin
Introduction  71
Background  72
The funding gap  75
Conclusion  81

nine  Financial planning for social enterprises  83

Andrew Ferguson
It’s good to plan  83
Income forecast  84
Income statement  87
Cash flow forecast  89
Managing financial risk  91
Conclusion  93

ten  The challenges and risks of innovation in social entrepreneurship  95

Tim Curtis
Introduction  95
Conceptualising innovation and its ethics  96
Analysing for innovation: systems skills  101
Implementing innovation: mind-set shifts  105
Conclusion  107

eleven  Leadership and management skills development in social enterprises  111

Jon Griffith
Introduction  111
Leadership and management skills  112
Leadership and management in different types of organisations  113
The distinctive leadership and management tasks in social enterprises  114
Stages of growth in organisations  115
How are leadership and management skills developed?  117
Social enterprises: a special case?  118
Developing skills for leading and managing social enterprises  120
Conclusion  121
Contents

twelve  Developing social impact measurement for social enterprise  125
Richard Hazenberg and Jim Clifford
  Overview  125
  Defining social impact and measurement  126
  GECES and the development of a common framework  127
  Moving beyond GECES: the Ten-point Code for Social Impact Measurement  128

Part Three: Skills in practice  133 thirteen  UK case study  135
  Mandy Young
    Introduction  135
    Development of an idea  135
    Birth of the initial project: Corby Wheels  136
    Developing an indoor arena  136
    Developing a social enterprise  138
    Social impact  140
    Marketing the organisation  141
    Private sector involvement  142
    ‘Challenge the Alley’  142
    Conclusion: the future  143

fourteen  China case study  145
  Marie Tze Kwan So and Carol Chyau
    Introduction  145
    Ventures in Development: an introduction  147
    Case study 1: Mei Xiang yak cheese  149
    Case study 2: Shokay  152
    Conclusion: envisioning the future  157

fifteen  India case study  159
  Stan Thekaekara
    Introduction  159
    So what works best?  161
    Just Change: a case study  162
    Just Change: the theoretical framework  165
    Operational framework  168
    Conclusion: what the future holds  171

sixteen  Japan case study  173
  Takashi Yamamoto
    Introduction  173
    Social trends in Japan  173
    Japanese social enterprise  173
    A regional strategy for social enterprises  174
    Introducing Impact Hub Kyoto  175

seventeen  Malaysia case study  177
  Shariha Khalid and Christoffer Erichsen
    Background: the challenge  177
    A public–private–people partnership for impact: the solution  177
    Everything is possible: the learning  181