Contents

List of figures and tables v
Notes on contributors vii
Introduction 1
Su-ming Khoo and Helen Kara

Part I: Researcher care and resilience
1. Do the best you can: researcher safety in a pandemic 9
   Petra Boynton

2. “I don’t know what I’d have done without this project”: Oral history as a social and therapeutic intervention during COVID-19 25
   Stephanie J. Snow

Part II: Participant care and resilience
3. Diversity, equity and inclusion research in public health and the health professions education during a pandemic and societal anti-racism protests 37
   Rachel Yoho

   Getrude Dadirai Gwenzi, Uchechi Shirley Anaduaka, Stephen Baffour Adjei, Ayomide Oladosu and Sarah Tara Sam

5. Exploring young people’s experiences of growing up under COVID-19 58
   Leanne Monchuk, Laurie Day, Sara Rizzo and Barry Percy-Smith
iv Researching in the Age of COVID-19: Volume 2

6. Ensuring no voices are left behind: the use of digital storytelling and diary writing in times of crisis
Nicola Jones, Kate Pincock, Bassam Abu Hamad, Agnieszka Malachowska, Sally Youssef, Sarah Alheiwidi and Kifah Bani Odeh

7. Using ICT to research maternal, newborn and child health during the COVID-19 pandemic in Nigeria
Osasuyi Dirisu, Godwin Akaba and Eseoghene Adams

Part III: Shared care and resilience
8. Piling on the pressure? Negotiating burden/benefit dynamics in social research during times of crisis
Oliver Hooper, Rachel Sandford and Thomas Quarmby

9. Keep Talking: messy research in times of lockdown
Nicola Gratton, Ryan Fox and Teri Elder

10. Occupational being during the COVID-19 pandemic
Danielle Hitch, Emily Adcock, Emma Cramer and Taylah Sayers

11. Prioritizing inclusion, ethical practice and accessibility during a global pandemic: the role of the researcher in mindful decision making
Emma Partlow

Conclusion
Helen Kara and Su-ming Khoo