THE PRACTICE OF COLLECTIVE ESCAPE
The Spaces and Practices of Justice series focuses on the intersections between spaces and practices to provide innovative and important interventions on examples of real-world (in)justice. The series explores food justice, scholar-activism, social movements, gender, sexuality, race, childhood, labour, trade, domestic spaces, environmental relations and consumption to open out different approaches to questions of justice grounded within everyday experiences and spaces.

Forthcoming in the series:

Researching Justice: Engaging with Questions and Spaces of (In)Justice through Social Research

Agatha Herman and Joshua Inwood, April 2024

Find out more at bristoluniversitypress.co.uk/spaces-and-practices-of-justice
For Felix and Mabel, my garden babies