Tables and Figures

Tables

1.1 Voter turnout in Canadian federal elections by age group / 7
1.2 Multi-election voter participation, 1974 and 2004 / 14
1.3 Multi-election voter participation, 2003 / 19
1.4 Shares of habitual versus intermittent non-voters (aged twenty-five to twenty-nine) / 20
1.5 Aggregate civic and political activities by age / 33
3.1 Comparative measures of political attentiveness / 63
3.2 Political knowledge age gap for six countries, 1956-2005 / 70
3.3 Political interest age gap for six countries, 1949-2005 / 75
3.4 Television penetration in six countries, 1953-80 / 77
3.5 Newspaper and magazine reading, age difference for six countries, 1965-2000 / 80
3.6 Cohort analysis of reading time per day (magazines and newspapers) in five countries, 1965-2005 (OLS regression) / 83
3.7 Age gap in election debate viewing in five countries, 1960-2004 / 87
3.8 Age gap in TV news viewing in five countries, 1962-2004 / 88
3.9 TV news viewing, Norway, 1975 and 1983 / 94
3.10 Cohort analysis of election debate and regular TV news viewing in three countries (OLS regression) / 97
3.11 Birth cohort comparisons of TV news viewing in three countries / 98
4.1 Political knowledge by age group / 104
4.2 Preferred news media outlets by age group / 119
4.3 Political knowledge scores by news media usage / 122
4.4 News media use and political knowledge, multivariate analysis (OLS regression) / 124
4.5 Early influences on political attentiveness (OLS regression) / 129
7.1 Individualism, personal and principled / 195

Figures

1.1 Voter turnout in federal and provincial elections, Canada and selected provinces, 1988-2009 / 5
1.2 Voting propensity by age and education level / 22
1.3 Voting propensity by age and household income / 24
1.4 Beyond voting: Other political activities by age / 27
1.5 Beyond voting: Volunteering and group memberships by age / 28
1.6 Participation in other political and civic activities by age and voter type / 31

2.1 Confidence in institutions by age / 39
2.2 Levels of confidence in institutions and voting / 40
2.3 Levels of confidence in institutions and other types of engagement / 42
2.4 Following the news by age / 44
2.5 Following the news and voting / 45
2.6 Following the news and other types of engagement / 46
2.7 Community attachments by age / 51
2.8 Community attachments and voting / 52
2.9 Community attachments and other types of engagement / 52

3.1 Viewership for national news broadcasts by age (Canada) / 90
3.2 News and public affairs viewing time by age (Canada) / 93

4.1 Regular news consumption by age / 113
4.2 Duration of news consumption by age / 115
4.3 Total news consumption estimates by age / 116
4.4 Attention to political news stories by age / 120

5.1 Voting and political knowledge in Canada / 132
5.2 Voting gap between high- and low-knowledge groups in six countries / 134
5.3 The inattentive public in six countries / 135
5.4 Voting gap between high- and low-knowledge groups in six countries, age categories compared / 136
5.5 Other forms of participation and political knowledge / 138
5.6 Influencing others and political knowledge / 140
5.7 Critical discernment and political knowledge / 143
5.8 Opinion on Aboriginal policy by knowledge of Aboriginal income levels / 148
6.1 Social connectedness and community attachments / 163
6.2 Social connectedness by age / 165
6.3 Social trust by age and education / 168
6.4 Community attachments by age / 169
6.5 Social capital in Canada, past and present / 171
6.6 Attitudes by age towards law and order and feeling part of a community with common history / 176
6.7 National attachment and deferential attitudes / 177
7.1 Self-reliance, personal and principled, by age / 199
7.2 Confidence in self and others by age / 200
7.3 Self-regard, personal and principled, by age / 202
7.4 Emphasis on personal material well-being by age / 203
7.5 Self-direction, personal and principled, by age / 204
7.6 Tolerance of group difference by age / 205
7.7 Openness to experience by age / 207
8.1 Relative importance of reasons for voting by age / 211
8.2 Relative importance of reasons for following the news by age / 212
8.3 Following politics daily: the influence of political interest by age / 214
8.4 Following politics daily: the influence of political interest by self-direction / 215
8.5 Voting in federal elections: the influence of political knowledge by age / 216
8.6 Voting in federal elections: the influence of political knowledge by importance of duty to vote / 217
8.7 Influencing others by age / 223
8.8 Influencing others by individualist norms / 224
9.1 Political interest by age (EU Countries) / 246
9.2 Political discussion by age (EU Countries) / 247
9.3 Self-regarding attitudes by age (Canada) / 250
9.4 Openness to experience by age (Canada) / 254
9.5 Openness to experience and tolerance (Canada) / 256
9.6 Tolerance by age (Canada) / 257