Illustrations

5 The 2nd Battle of Ypres. Richard Jack, NAC C-014145
13 Near the Ypres salient, 1916. Canada, Department of National Defence/ NAC PA-000811
21 The German Poison Belt. Supplement to the Illustrated London News, John de G. Bryan, NAC C-003976
43 Canadian soldier wearing a P-helmet. C.M. Johnston, NAC PA-056171
56 A novel gas vane made by a Canadian. Canada, Department of National Defence/NAC PA-001699
80 No Man’s Land. Ivor Castle/Canada, Department of National Defence/ NAC PA-000786
83 Canadian soldiers returning from the trenches during the Battle of the Somme. W.I. Castle/NAC PA-000832
88 Two soldiers with small box respirators examining a Lee Enfield rifle. Canada, Department of National Defence/NAC PA-001027
92 Exiting the gas chamber at gas drill. Canada, Department of National Defence/NAC PA-004834
100 The Battle of Vimy Ridge. After Richard Jack, NAC C-000148
126 Gas projectors used by Canadians at Hill 70. NAC PA-001867
152 Unidentified Canadian soldier with burns caused by mustard gas. NAC PA-080027
160 Attacking under smoke. Canada, Department of National Defence/ NAC PA-000127
160 Training with respirators on. Canada, Department of National Defence/ NAC PA-004897
190 Canadians wearing gas masks bringing in wounded, Battle of Amiens. Canada, Department of National Defence/NAC PA-002863
213 Fighting in the gas environment of the Western Front. NAC PA-004894