Contents

Figures and Tables / viii

Acknowledgments / ix

1 Critical Policy Studies 1
MICHAEL ORSINI AND MIRIAM SMITH

PART 1: POLITICAL ECONOMY

2 Political Economy and Canadian Public Policy 19
PETER GRAEFE

3 Policy Analysis in an Era of “Globalization”: Capturing Spatial Dimensions and Scalar Strategies 41
RIANNE MAHON, CAROLINE ANDREW, AND ROBERT JOHNSON

PART 2: CITIZENS AND DIVERSITY

4 Citizen Engagement: Rewiring the Policy Process 67
RACHEL LAForest AND SUSAN PHILLIPS

5 Queering Public Policy: A Canadian Perspective 91
MIRIAM SMITH

6 Gender Mainstreaming in the Canadian Context: “One Step Forward and Two Steps Back” 111
OLENA HANKIVSKY
7 Political Science, Race, Ethnicity, and Public Policy 137
YASMEEN ABU-LABAN

Part 3: Discourse and Knowledge

8 Governmentality and the Shifting Winds of Policy Studies 161
KAREN BRIDGET MURRAY

9 Agenda-Setting and Issue Definition 185
STUART N. SOROKA

10 Scientists, Government, and “Boundary Work”: The Case of Reproductive Technologies and Genetic Engineering in Canada 211
FRANCESCA SCALA

11 Between Respect and Control: Traditional Indigenous Knowledge in Canadian Public Policy 233
FRANCES ABELE

12 Framing Environmental Policy: Aboriginal Rights and the Conservation of Migratory Birds 257
LUC JUILLET

Part 4: Risky Subjects

DENIS SAINT-MARTIN

14 Canadian Post-9/11 Border Policy and Spillover Securitization: Smart, Safe, Sovereign? 299
MARK B. SALTER

15 The Permanent-Emergency Compensation State: A “Postsocialist” Tale of Political Dystopia 321
MATT JAMES
16 Discourses in Distress: From “Health Promotion” to “Population Health” to “You Are Responsible for Your Own Health” 347

MICHAEL ORSINI

Contributors 365

Index 369