

Contents

Presentation / ix

Mystic Historicities / 1

1. A Social Documentation 4
2. A Non-Place of Philosophy 8
3. Unstable Scientific Objects 14

Mystic Operations 21

Chapter One / 23

The Look: Nicholas of Cusa

1. The All-Seeing 29
2. A Geometry of the Look 39
3. The Circular Discourse:
“All and Each at the Same Time” 50

Chapter Two / 71

The Poem and Its Prose

1. The Poetic Beginning 72
2. A Scenography of History:
From Silence to Discourse 80

Contents / vi

Chapter Three / 88

Shards of Speech

Dialogues 90

Fragments 92

Melodies 96

Chapter Four / 98

Uses of Tradition

1. On Interpretation as a “Received” Text 99
2. Surin, Reader of John of the Cross through R. Gaultier 101
3. John of the Cross, a “Saint” Who Wields Authority 104
4. The “Mystic” Language 107
5. The “Mystic Phrases”: To Say and Not to Say 112
6. From Extraordinary Graces to the “Universal and Confused Notion” 115

Chapter Five / 120

Absolute Reading

1. The Book of the “Spirituals”: A Historical Framework 121
2. The “Moments” of Reading 124

Chapter Six / 135

Stories of Passions

- A Stage for Voices: A Historical Site 136
- The Modalizing Excess 138
- Breakage and Noises 140

Chapter Seven / 144

The Experimental Science of Madness

1. Distance or Space 147
2. The Other World: The Invention of a Body 154

Chapter Eight / 161

Angelic Speech

1. Enunciative Metaphors: “Angelizare” 163
2. Styles: Being and Saying 166
3. Figures of Exceedance 172
4. Retreats before History 177

Chapter Nine / 181

Biblical Erudition

1. Chiaroscuro: From Corruption to Reform 181
2. Theoretical Preliminaries 183

Contents / vii

3. Le Maistre de Sacy 186

4. Richard Simon 189

Chapter Ten / 194

The Strange Secret: Pascal

The Fourth Letter to Mademoiselle de Roannez 194

Text and Pre-texts 196

The Staging of the Enunciatory Instance 197

Tripartition of Modalities 200

The Ruses of Argumentation: A War of Movement 202

Meaning: Thinking of / Passing to / the Other 206

“You”: The Quoted God 208

The Approach Conceals 210

The Opera of Speech: Glossolalias / 212

Fictions of Speech 212

A “Believing” 214

Two Types 215

The Illusion of Meaning 217

Pfister: The Equivocation of Communication 218

Saussure: A Speaking Taken for a Language 221

The Vocal Institution 222

The Senseless and Repetition 224

Ebrietas spiritualis: An Opera 226

Notes / 227

Index of Names / 283

