

Contents

Introduction	1
1 Representational Philosophy and Conventional Realism	9
2 Mentalism and the Problem of Concepts	34
3 The Realistic Imagination in Political Inquiry: The Case of International Relations	53
4 The Challenge to Representational Philosophy: Wittgenstein, Ryle, and Austin	72
5 Contemporary Anti-representationalism: Sellars, Davidson, Putnam, McDowell, and Dennett	92
6 Presentation and Representation in Social Inquiry	114
7 Conventional Realism	128
8 The Quest for the Real and the Fear of Relativism	151
Conclusion	168

Acknowledgments 175

References 177

Index 185

