What is crucial is our ability to engage in continuous conversation, testing one another, discovering our hidden presuppositions, changing our minds because we have listened to the voices of our fellows. Lunatics also change their minds, but their minds change with the tides of the moon and not because they have listened, really listened, to their friends' questions and objections.

AMÉLIE OKSENBERG RORTY¹

To the socialists of all parties

F. A. HAYEK

I give you the toast . . . of economics and economists, who are the trustees not of civilization, but of the possibility of civilization.
