CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS VII
ABBREVIATIONS IX
CHRONOLOGY XI

I. Introduction
1. Indonesian Democratization in Theoretical Perspective  3
   Mirjam Künkler and Alfred Stepan
2. Indonesian Democracy: From Transition to Consolidation  24
   R. William Liddle and Saiful Mujani

II. Attitudes: The Development of a Democratic Consensus by Religious and Political Actors
3. How Pluralist Democracy Became the Consensual Discourse Among Secular and Nonsecular Muslims in Indonesia  53
   Mirjam Künkler
4. Christian and Muslim Minorities in Indonesia: State Policies and Majority Islamic Organizations  73
   Franz Magnis-Suseno, SJ
Contents

III. Behaviors: Challenges to the Democratic Transition and State and Their Transcendence

5. Veto Player No More? The Declining Political Influence of the Military in Postauthoritarian Indonesia 89
   Marcus Mietzner

   Sidney Jones

7. How Indonesia Survived: Comparative Perspectives on State Disintegration and Democratic Integration 126
   Edward Aspinall

IV. Constitutionalism: The Role of Law and Legal Pluralism

8. Contours of Sharia in Indonesia 149
   John R. Bowen

   Tim Lindsey and Simon Butt

GLOSSARY 187
NOTES 189
SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY 225
CONTRIBUTORS 233
INDEX 237