To my former Siglo XX mining comrades, who provided me with the political foundation that shapes my life; to my brothers and sisters from Wila Apacheta, who are my ongoing guides; to my family, who were able to endure the suffering of my persecution and captivity; and to my friends for the solidarity they have shown.

—FÉLIX

To Bolivia's indigenous and working-class people, who, for twenty-five years, have inspired us with their struggle for a more just world; to Elayne Zorn, who shared our love of the Andes; and to Gavriel Cutipa-Zorn, who will carry on.

—BENJAMIN AND LINDA
