ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This, the first full-length biography of Thomas Medwin, is based solidly upon Medwin's published books, articles, tales, sketches, poems, and translations. Sixty of these have never before been listed in any bibliography. However, this biography would have been impossible to write without the generous aid of the following persons, to whom I here give my particular thanks, in grateful appreciation, chiefly for their help in providing important unpublished materials: Sir John Murray, K.C.V.O., D.S.O., of London, for the contents of a large box file of papers dealing with Medwin, including Medwin's letters to Byron; Mrs. Doris L. Moore of London, for a lengthy transcript of unpublished portions of John Cam Hobhouse's diary and for other important aid; Mrs. Joan St. George Saunders, my friend and representative in London, for a copy of the will of Medwin's father and for other important and extended aid; Mr. D. W. King, O.B.E., F.L.A., Librarian of the British War Office at Whitehall, for lengthy summaries of Medwin's military records; Mr. Ivan Roe of London, for a transcript of the christening record of Medwin's daughter; Mr. T. C. Skeat of the Department of Manuscripts, British Museum, for one Medwin letter; Mr. Thomas G. Stedman of Horsham, Sussex, for photographs of Medwin's tombstone and for other aid; Dr. Herbert Derwein of Heidelberg, for transcripts of articles from the Badische Post; Dr. Cino Corti of Florence, for transcripts of court records naming Medwin in the state archives of Florence; Signorina Rosella Masetti of Pisa, for directing me to Medwin's sole living descendant; Count Paolo Mancini and Countess Patricia Mancini of Lausanne and Cortona, for permission to publish Medwin's letters; Signorina Elsa Dallolio and the Marchesa Iris Origo of Rome; Professor Lewis Patton of Duke University and Mr. B. E. Powell of the Duke University Library, for a microfilm in twenty-six reels of the great Lord Abinger Collection of nineteenth century letters and diaries; The Carl and Lily Pforzheimer Foundation, Inc., for permission to quote from thirteen unpublished Medwin letters, all in The Carl H. Pforzheimer Library; Professor Leslie A. Marchand of Rutgers University, for photographs of pages from Teresa Guiccioli's unpublished "Vie de Lord Byron en Italie" and for a list of Medwin's anonymous contributions to The Athenaeum, which Professor Marchand copied from the marked file in London; Professor William H. Marshall of the University of Pennsylvania, for a list of Medwin's signed contributions to Ainsworth's Magazine, not otherwise available to me; Professor William A. Jackson of the Houghton Library, for microfilm copies of Medwin's Conversations of Byron with autographic annotations by Medwin, Trelawny, and General Sir Charles Napier; Mr. Herbert Cahoon of the Pierpont Morgan Library, for microfilm of Medwin letters and of a copy of Medwin's Life of Shelley, revised for a new edition and differing from the copy used by H. Buxton Forman; Mr. Robert F. Metzdorf of the Yale University Library, for a copy of Medwin's Conversations of Byron annotated by John Cam Hobhouse; Mr. Seymour Adelman of Philadelphia, for bibliographical details of the very rare Baltimore edition (1825) of Medwin's Conversations of Byron and for a letter of Heinrich Heine, mentioning Medwin; Mr. John D. Gordan, Curator of the Berg Collection, New York Public Library, for one Medwin letter; the Librarian of the University of Pennsylvania, for Medwin's marked copies of The New Anti-Jacobin, identifying his own contributions; Professor Warren Roberts, Director of the Humanities Research Center, University of Texas, for Medwin's unpublished manuscript play, Prometheus the Fire-bearer, for a unique interleaved copy of Medwin's Memoir of Shelley, presented by the author to Caroline de Crespigny, for letters of Lady Caroline Lamb, and for other aid; Professor Willis Pratt and the late Professor David L. Clark of the University of Texas, for a typescript of the unpublished diary of Claire Clairmont, photostats of which are at the University of Texas; Professor C. L. Cline, of the University of Texas, for transcripts of letters of Medwin and Trelawny; Professor William B. Todd, of the University of Texas, for a transcript of a letter of Charles Armitage Brown; and Miss Ruth Hale and others of the University of Texas Library, for their unfailing courtesy and highly informed assistance.

I am also greatly indebted to Mr. Alexander Moffit, Librarian of the University of Texas, for aid in securing photographic reproductions of unpublished material. The University of Texas Research Institute was kind enough to give to me a leave of absence and several very generous grants.

ERNEST J. LOVELL, JR.

The University of Texas

THIS PAGE INTENTIONALLY LEFT BLANK