CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS xix
FOREWORD
   by Judge A. Leon Higginbotham, Jr. xv
PREFACE xxiii
INTRODUCTION 3

PART ONE
Prologue to Struggle: The Formative Years, 1829–1924 13
   I    The Inheritance 15
   II   Charles Hamilton Houston 24
   III  "Army Justice" 35
   IV   Studying Law at Home and Abroad 46

PART TWO
Developing Cadres: The Howard Years, 1924–1935 57
   V    Houston & Houston 59
   VI   The Transformation of Howard University Law School 63
   VII  "Dean" Houston's School for Social Engineers 76
   VIII The Limitations of American Law 86
   IX    Matters of Conscience 106

PART THREE
Struggling on Diverse Fronts:
The National Years, 1935–1950 129
X "This Fight . . . Is Not an Isolated Struggle" 131
XI Protecting the Right to Work 156
XII "Racism Must Go" 176
XIII "In Any Fight, Some Fall" 194

CONCLUSIONS 213
APPENDIXES 227
SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY 237
A NOTE ON SOURCES AND ABBREVIATIONS 249
NOTES 251
INDEX OF NAMES, PLACES, AND SUBJECTS 299
INDEX OF PRINCIPAL CASES CITED 307