CONTENTS

Foreword

H. E. Ambassador Luis Gallegos
ix

Introduction

Jonathan Lazar and Michael Ashley Stein
1

PART I. PARTICIPATION AND INCLUSION

1. Standards Bodies, Access to Information Technology, and Human Rights
   Judy Brewer
   11

2. Accessible ICTs and the Opening of Political Space for Persons with Disabilities
   Janet E. Lord
   24

3. Web Accessibility for People with Cognitive Disabilities: A Legal Right?
   Peter Blanck
   41

4. The Intersection of Human Rights, Social Justice, the Internet, and Accessibility in Libraries: Access, Education, and Inclusion
   Paul T. Jaeger, Brian Wentz, and John Carlo Bertot
   58

PART II. GOVERNMENT AND GOVERNANCE

5. Public Financing of Information Technology and Human Rights for People with Disabilities
   Deborah Kaplan
   73
6. Using Provincial Laws to Drive a National Agenda: Connecting Human Rights and Disability Rights Laws 94
   Ravi Malhotra and Megan A. Rusciano

7. Access to Justice 111
   Fredric I. Lederer

8. Open Government and Digital Accessibility 125
   Timothy Elder

PART III. SPECIFIC APPLICATIONS AND TECHNOLOGIES

9. E-Books and Human Rights 143
   Jim Fruchterman

10. Accessibility and Online Learning 158
    Mary J. Ziegler and David Sloan

11. Who Owns Captioning? 182
    Raja Kushalnagar

12. Information Privacy and Security as a Human Right for People with Disabilities 199
    Jonathan Lazar, Brian Wentz, and Marco Winckler

13. How Does Inaccessible Gaming Lead to Social Exclusion? 212
    Joyram Chakraborty

PART IV. INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

14. The Pivot Model of Policy Entrepreneurship: An Application of European Ideas in the Global South 227
    G. Anthony Giannoumis, Mirriam Nthenge, and Jorge Manhique

15. The Accessibility Infrastructure and the Global South 244
    Joyojeet Pal
This page intentionally left blank