INTRODUCTION

PART I. CAPTIVES OF THE OLD PARADIGM

Chapter 1. Baltimore: Despite Multiple Rebirths, a City Still Divided

Chapter 2. Detroit: Despite a Visionary Strategic Plan, a City Still Depressed

Chapter 3. Camden: Despite Massive Business Incentives, Still a City of Limited Opportunity

PART II. SHIFTING GROUND

Chapter 4. Milwaukee: Beyond the New Urbanism, Questions of Equity and Justice

Chapter 5. New Haven: In a “Model City” Dominated by Eds and Meds, Still Contested Development

Contents

Part III. Breaking Through

Chapter 8. Pittsburgh: Where Equity Seeks to Catch Up with Innovation 191

Chapter 9. Newark: The Hard Road to Inclusive Growth 215

Conclusion 236

Notes 251

Index 313

Acknowledgments 327