MAPS

1. Medieval London and environs 18
2. Arrival points for plague in 1348 38

FIGURES

1. Distribution of wills leaving movable goods in the Commissary Court and the Prerogative Court of Canterbury 11
2. Cut-away view of an open-hall house 23
3. Burl on a maple tree 34
4. Fifteenth-century mazer 54
5. Fifteenth-century nut, or coconut cup 55
6a. Percentage of wills leaving mazers, nuts, and metal cups in London, 1384–1540 57
6b. Percentage of cups bequeathed by type in London, 1384–1540 57
7. Serpentine mazer (ca. 1500) 62
8. Late fifteenth-century ceramic tankard with bearded face 64
9. Historiated initial C with a woman in childbed (ca. 1490) 66
10. Henry VII’s marriage bed 68
11. Blind Tobit 82
12. Robert Campin, Annunciation, Merode Altarpiece (1427–30) 107
13. Detail of the Merode Altarpiece 108
15a. Late medieval chest with a rounded top 112
15b. Fifteenth-century chest with a flat top 112
16. Beneficiaries receiving household goods by sex in London, 1384–1540 115
17. Distribution of bequests of chests in London, 1384–1540 118
18. Mid-fifteenth-century Italian cassone 118
19. Cook using a meat hook and a skimmer 135
20. Late fifteenth-century apostle spoon 145
21. Wooden bowl 146
22a. Pewter spoon 147
22b. Detail of pewter spoon 147
23. Late fifteenth-century paternoster 160
24. Distribution of bequests of paternosters in London, 1384–1540 161
25. Beneficiaries receiving paternosters by sex in London, 1384–1540 161
26. Amber paternoster (ca. 1350–1400) 163
27. Agnus Dei belt buckle (fourteenth or fifteenth century) 163
28. Middleham Jewel 164
29. Cramp ring (1308–1550) 166
30. Late medieval turned jet bowl 173
31a. Prayer scroll or birthing girdle 176
31b. Printed birthing girdle (1533–34) 177
32. Distribution of bequests of girdles in London, 1384–1540 178
33. Beneficiaries receiving girdles by sex in London, 1384–1540 178
34. Fifteenth-century Italian swaddling bands 184
35. So-called cradle of Henry V (fifteenth century) 185
36. Selection of pressed-metal toys 187
37. London inventories with religious items 195
38. Distribution of bequests of religious items in London, 1384–1540 196
39. Metal holy water stoup (ca. 1066–1600) 197
40a. Ceramic figurine of the Virgin Mary 198
40b. Pressed-metal stand 199
41. Recipients of religious books by sex in London, 1384–1540 202
42. Sarum Use book of hours 203
43. Devotional tablet 204
44. Pressed-metal St. John’s head 205
45. Terra-cotta cake or sweetmeat mold of St. Katherine (1450–1520) 207
46. Recipients of religious items in London, 1384–1540 208
47. Percentage of post-plague wills leaving moveable goods in Husting Wills, Commissary Court, and Prerogative Court of Canterbury 223
48. Number of post-plague wills in Commissary Court and Prerogative Court of Canterbury 224
49a. Percentage of wills in Commissary Court leaving moveable goods by sex 225
49b. Percentage of wills in Prerogative Court of Canterbury leaving moveable goods by sex 225
50. Chronological distribution of post-plague London inventories 227

TABLES

1. Occupations of those with post-plague inventories 12
2. Average wealth of households in three sets of post-plague inventories 13
3. Hustings Wills with Moveable Goods, 1344–1428 32
4. Beneficiaries of Beds and Bedding in London, 1384–1540 70
5a. Cooking Facilities in London’s Fourteenth-Century Inventories (1350–99) 132
5b. Cooking Facilities in London’s Sixteenth-Century Inventories (1500–1544) 132
6a. Meat-Cooking Capabilities in London’s Fourteenth-Century Inventories (1350–99) 136
6b. Meat-Cooking Capabilities in London’s Sixteenth-Century Inventories (1500–1544) 136
7. Numbers of Post-Plague Inventories Used 229