INTRODUCTION

Susan Juster and Linda Gregerson

PART I. LAUNCHING IMPERIAL PROJECTS

Chapter 1. The Polemics of Possession: Spain on America, Circa 1550
Rolena Adorno

Chapter 2. Cruelty and Religious Justifications for Conquest in the Mid-Seventeenth-Century English Atlantic
Carla Gardina Pestana

Chapter 3. Religion and National Distinction in the Early Modern Atlantic
Barbara Fuchs

Linda Gregerson

PART II. COLONIAL ACCOMMODATIONS

Chapter 5. Catholic Saints in Spain’s Atlantic Empire
Cornelius Conover
Chapter 6. A Wandering Jesuit in Europe and America: Father Chaumonot Finds a Home 106
Allan Greer

Chapter 7. From London to Nonantum: Mission Literature in the Transatlantic English World 123
Kristina Bross

Chapter 8. Dreams Clash: The War over Authorized Interpretation in Seventeenth-Century French Missions 143
Dominique Deslandres

Chapter 9. “For Each and Every House to Wish for Peace”: Christoph Saur’s High German American Almanac and the French and Indian War in Pennsylvania 154
Bethany Wiggin

PART III. VIOLENT ENCOUNTERS

Chapter 10. Reconfiguring Martyrdom in the Colonial Context: Marie de l’Incarnation 175
Katherine Ibbett

Chapter 11. Book of Suffering, Suffering Book: The Mennonite Martyrs’ Mirror and the Translation of Martyrdom in Colonial America 191
Patrick Erben

Chapter 12. Iconoclasm Without Icons? The Destruction of Sacred Objects in Colonial North America 216
Susan Juster

FINAL REFLECTIONS: Spenser and the End of the British Empire 238
Paul Stevens
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CONTENTS</th>
<th>IX</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>257</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>List of Contributors</td>
<td>319</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Index</td>
<td>323</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Acknowledgments</td>
<td>333</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
This page intentionally left blank