

CONTENTS

Foreword by James R. Kimmey	xvii
Notes on Tables and Figures	xx
1 / Introduction	1
Mortality Trends in the United States	1
The Study of Differential Mortality	5
The 1960 Matched Records Study	8
Outline and Sources	9
2 / Education and Income Differentials	11
Education Differentials Among Adults	11
Education and Length of Life	16
Income Differentials Among Adults	17
Comparison of Education and Income Differentials	22
Mortality and Socioeconomic Status	23
Independent Influence of Education and Income	25
Education Differentials by Age	26
Infant Mortality Rates	28
Limitations of Data	29
3 / Occupation Differentials	34
Previous Findings	36
Findings in the 1960 Matched Records Study	41
4 / Socioeconomic Differentials in a Metropolis	47
Data and Method	48
Mortality in Chicago Area and in the United States	52
Socioeconomic Differentials, Chicago Area	62
5 / Socioeconomic Differentials by Cause of Death	73
Education Differentials, United States, 1960	73
Socioeconomic Differentials, Chicago, 1950	90

6 / Differential Mortality by Race, Nativity, Country of Origin, Marital Status, and Parity	93
Nonwhite-White Differentials	93
Differentials by Race	98
Nativity Differentials	104
Differentials by Country of Birth of Foreign Born	107
Marital Status Differentials	108
Parity Differentials	112
7 / Geographic Differentials and Socioeconomic Correlates	114
Differentials by Geographic Division—Metropolitan and Nonmetropolitan	115
Mortality Differentials by States and Economic Subregions	126
Correlates of Geographic Differentials	139
8 / Summary and Implications	151
Summary of Mortality Differentials	152
Excess Mortality	166
Quality of Mortality Data	176
Significance of Findings	178
Appendix A / The 1960 Study of Deaths Matched with Census Records: Objectives, Design, and Estimation Procedures	183
1. Design of the Study	184
2. Match Bias	191
3. Derivation of Mortality Ratios	197
a. Control totals	198
b. Ratios by education level	200
c. Ratios by education level and cause of death	209
d. Ratios by family income and personal income	214
e. Ratios by occupation for men	214
f. Ratios by marital status	219
g. Ratios by parity for married women	222
4. Reliability of Mortality Ratios	225
5. Derivation of 1960 Life Tables by Education Level	225

Appendix B / Appendix Tables B.1 to B.5 for Chapter 7	228
Notes	235
References	248
Index	253

