

Contents

1.	The Pantheon of Literature	1
	“The mighty dead” • the identity and the tradition • the neoclassical dilemma • concordia discors • resolution
2.	The Isolation of an Augustan Hero	25
	Childhood and adolescence (1688–1707) • disease and deformity • self-education • early advocates • the young rake • the poetry of a bachelor • religious isolation
3.	Homer and the Heroic Ideal	83
	Translation and originality (1714–1725) • the composition of Pope’s “Homer” • the Preface to the Iliad (1715) • invention and fire • the heroic imagination • Sarpedon and Achilles • heroism and solitude
4.	Pope and the Temple of Fame	133
	“Fame became of him” • The Preface to the Works (1717) • The Temple of Fame • the ruins of time • elegies and epitaphs
5.	A Living Image: Swift	176
	A friend in absentia (1714–1726) • the Scriblerus Club • the letters of 1725 • The Dunciad I-III (1728) • Pope’s image of Swift • retirement
6.	The Free Soul	199
	A system of ethics • Horace • Caesar and King George • The Epistle to Augustus (1737) • political and literary fame and infamy • The Dunciad IV (1742) • “CHAOS! is restor’d”
	Index	235

Alexander Pope