

CONTENTS

CHAPTER I

NICHIREN AND HIS TIME

	PAGE
Nichiren the prophet	3
The social degeneracy and a Buddhist prediction	4
The political situation of his time	6
The "degenerate Buddhism"; the four schools of Buddhism	7

CHAPTER II

NICHIREN'S BIRTH, STUDIES, AND CONVERSION. THE LOTUS OF TRUTH

Nichiren's childhood and the years of his study	12
The final resort of his faith and the "Sacred Title" of the Scripture	15
The Lotus of Truth; its general nature	18
The introduction and the exposition of the ideal aim	19
The perpetuation of the Truth	22
The revelation of the real entity of Buddha's personality	26
The "consummation and perpetuation"	29
Nichiren's personal touch with the Scripture	30

CHAPTER III

NICHIREN'S PUBLIC APPEARANCE AND PERSECUTION

His proclamation of his new faith	33
His warning and the first exile	36
His perilous experiences and the "Stanzas of Perseverance"	39
Reflections on the relations of his mission	41

CHAPTER IV

AN INTERLUDE AND A NARROW ESCAPE

His pugnacious spirit and his tender heart	46
His mother and his old master	47
The peril of the pine forest and the escape	49
His missionary journeys and converts	50

CONTENTS

CHAPTER V

THE THREATENING MONGOL INVASION AND THE SENTENCE OF DEATH

The arrival of the Mongol envoys and Nichiren's renewed re- monstrance	52
Prosecution and sentence of death; the narrow escape and a "resurrection"	54
Release from death and second exile	58

CHAPTER VI

THE EXILE IN SADO AND THE RIPENING OF NICHIREN'S
FAITH IN HIS MISSION

A calm reflection and the attainment of faith in his mission . . .	60
His life in solitary exile	63
"The Heritage of the Great Thing Concerning Life and Death" . .	65
"Opening the Eyes"; the ethical aspects of religious life and faith	68
Absolute trust in Buddha's prophetic assurance	70
A better time, and Nichiren's thought about sin	73

CHAPTER VII

THE CLIMAX OF NICHIREN'S LIFE; THE GRAPHIC REPRESENTATION OF THE SUPREME BEING

Peace in exile; the object of religious worship	76
The Supreme Being and the doctrine of "mutual participation"	79
The Supreme Being; the union of the Truth and his Person . . .	81
"The Reality as It is" and the personal realization of Buddha- hood	82
The revelation of the Great Maṇḍala and further thoughts on his mission	85

CHAPTER VIII

RELEASE AND RETIREMENT; FURTHER CONFIRMATION OF HIS FAITH

Nichiren's attitude toward the government and the nation . . .	89
His return to Kamakura and the last breach with the govern- ment	91
His retirement and his reason for retiring from the world . . .	93

CONTENTS

xi

CHAPTER IX

A PARADISE ON EARTH AND THE HOLY SEE

Minobu, the place of retirement	97
The world and the individual; the ideal and the actual	98
“ The Testimony Common to all Buddhas ”	101
The true Buddhist creates a paradise everywhere	104
The Kingdom of Buddha and the Holy See	108
“ The Three Great Mysteries ”	109

CHAPTER X

SILENT PRAYER AND ANXIOUS WATCHING

The hope of the future and the present danger	112
The curse on the infidels	116
The curse and the sense of sinfulness, individual and national	117
Dedication of good to fellow-beings	119
Sense of indebtedness and fellowship	120
Nichiren's world-wide scheme	124
The Mongol invaders and their final defeat	125
The holy person and the holy place	129

CHAPTER XI

THE LAST STAGE OF NICHIREN'S LIFE AND HIS DEATH

His ideas about illness and death	131
His last moments and his legacy	133

APPENDIX

THE BUDDHIST CONCEPTION OF REALITY

I. The fundamental tenets of Buddhism concerning reality	137
II. Tendai's doctrines of the Middle Path and reality	148
Chronological Table	157

NICHIREN
THE BUDDHIST PROPHET

