DE GRUYTER
International Journal of Nursing Education Scholarship (IJNES) publishes significant peer-reviewed scholarship in the broad field of nursing education. The journal’s mission is to present high quality papers that advance nursing education, to enhance and advance nursing education globally, and to provide a forum for the dissemination of international perspectives and scholarship in nursing education. Timely articles describe innovative methods and introduce novel approaches to all aspects of nursing education. The journal is edited by faculty at leading North American universities; authors include notable professors from Johns Hopkins University, UCLA, and the University of Alberta.

The publisher, together with the authors and editors, has taken great pains to ensure that all information presented in this work (programs, applications, amounts, dosages, etc.) reflects the standard of knowledge at the time of publication. Despite careful manuscript preparation and proof correction, errors can nevertheless occur. Authors, editors and publisher disclaim all responsibility for any errors or omissions or liability for the results obtained from use of the information, or parts thereof, contained in this work. The citation of registered names, trade names, trademarks, etc. in this work does not imply, even in the absence of a specific statement, that such names are exempt from laws and regulations protecting trademarks etc. and therefore free for general use.
