OUR PARTNERSHIP

Since 2012, Harvard University Press and De Gruyter have partnered together to better serve our mutual clients. As part of this, virtually all formerly out-of-print titles from Harvard University Press have been brought back to life via De Gruyter's digitalization service.

ABOUT HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS

Founded in 1913, Harvard University Press is the publisher of such award-winning works as Deng Xiaoping and the Transformation of China by Ezra F. Vogel, Becoming Dickens: The Invention of a Novelist by Robert Douglas-Fairhurst, and FDR and the Jews by Richard Breitman and Allan J. Lichtman. The Press is a leading publisher of convergent works in the sciences, humanities, and social sciences, while also taking bold steps in exciting new directions, from innovative new partnerships to an expanded commitment to facilitating scholarly conversation around the globe.
