The periodical "figurationen" offers a forum for up-to-date discussions about culture, gender and literature. The aim is the connection of cultural studies and disciplines in issues which deal with a specific topic each time. In the context of Gender Studies, a form of interdisciplinarity that makes differences between scientific subjects visible and thus gains great depth, shall be realised. Involved are humanities as well as law, social sciences and sciences. Additionally, each issue presents a piece of art under the heading "Figurationen".
