ETRUSCAN AND ITALIC STUDIES
Journal of the Etruscan Foundation

Objective
Etruscan Studies: Journal of the Etruscan Foundation is the leading scholarly publication on Etruscology andItalic Studies in the English language. The journal details activities in all areas of research and study related to the Etruscan and pre-Roman civilizations and publishes articles as well as reviews of meetings and publications of interest to the professional community.

The journal invites submissions of original research in all disciplines relating to Etruscan and Italic Studies, such as archaeology, archaeometry, art history, epigraphy, and history. Archaeological site reports, either annual or multi-year, are also welcome. Submissions may be in English, French, German or Italian, but the final publication will be in English. All articles are peer-reviewed.

Founded in 1994, Etruscan Studies is a publication of the Etruscan Foundation. For information about the foundation and becoming a member, please visit www.etruscanfoundation.org. Members receive a complimentary subscription to Etruscan Studies as part of their membership.
