This two-volume documentation of the First International Congress on Pietism Research (28 August-1 September 2001) appears under the programmatic title »Interdisciplinary Research on Pietism«. The keynote addresses are followed by papers from the seven sections revolving around the following subjects: pietism as a manifestation of theology and the history of piety; pietism in state and society; pietism and the arts; pietism in pedagogy, psychology, and medicine; pietism and its international relations; pietism and its significance for missionary work and the discovery of the world; projects on access to pietist sources (with special emphasis on pietist hymn-books).