The NISPAcee Journal of Public Administration and Policy is predominantly devoted to public administration and public policy issues in Central and Eastern Europe. Its goal is to publish top quality papers based on own empirical research carried out in Central and Eastern Europe, and theoretical papers developing general public administration and public policy theory, or their specific dimensions in the region. It is devoted to all interested parties – academicians, politicians and public officials – to help develop public administration and public policy theory and practice in our region. A high quality standard review process is the principal quality assurance tool of the Journal and its main intention is to become one of the top periodicals in the area.
