Similarity Check Plagiarism Screening System

The editorial board is participating in a growing community of Similarity Check System's users in order to ensure that the content published is original and trustworthy. Similarity Check is a medium that allows for comprehensive manuscripts screening, aimed to eliminate plagiarism and provide a high standard and quality peer-review process.

Detailed description of the Similarity Check System can be found at: https://www.crossref.org/services/similarity-check/

- Slovenian Journal of Public Health (SJPH) is being published for more than 50 years by the National Institute of Public Health in Slovenia.
- SJPH publishes internationally oriented articles on the broad area of public health and encourages interdisciplinary approach to public health. It focuses on all specific issues in public health especially in Central and South East Europe, i.e. primary care, prevention of communicable and noncommunicable
The journal publishes original invited editorials, research papers, study protocols, and systematic reviews. Articles can be submitted only in English. Four issues are produced annually. The articles are submitted to a peer review process done by at least three reviewers from different areas of public health. The process is double-blind, fast, fair and constructive.

SJPH is included in SSCI: IF(2011)=0.452, IF(2012)=0.163, IF(2013)=0.732, IF(2014)=0.417, IF(2015)=0.203.

SJPH is also indexed in Web of Science, ProQuest, Scopus, CAB Abstract, Global Health, The Summon, PubMed Central, PubMed.

No payment for article processing or publishing fee is required from authors.
